LINGUIST ERA BEGINS AT BUFFALO

SEASON PREVIEW

A new era of University at Buffalo football begins this fall as Maurice Linguist has taken the reigns, hired as head coach in May. Considered by many as one of the top young minds in college football, it is a homecoming for Linguist who served as UB's defensive backs coach in 2012 and 2013.

Linguist is taking over a program looking to continue its winning ways. The Bulls are coming off a 6-1 campaign in 2020 and a second straight bowl win. UB is enjoying arguably its most successful stretch in school history, winning 30 games over the last four seasons, the most of any team in Mid-American Conference. The Bulls will once again look to challenge for a Mid-American Conference title, having reached the championship game two of the last three years.

The Bulls return six starters to an offense that ranked fifth in the nation in scoring a season ago (43.5 ppg). The Bulls were especially efficient on the ground, averaging 287.4 yards per carry which ranked second in the nation. The Bulls will need to replace All-American running back Jaret Patterson whose 178 ypg led the country. But with experience on the offensive line and All-MAC running back Kevin Marks returning, the UB offense should continue to thrive in 2021.

Seven starters return to a squad that led the MAC in total defense in 2020. Included in the returners are three players that have earned All-MAC honors during their careers. Often overshadowed by the offense, the defense has finished in at least the top two in the conference each of the last three seasons.

Here is a position-by-position breakdown as the Bulls enter fall camp.

QUARTERBACK

Kyle Vantrease will likely earn the starting nod at quarterback after a breakout season in 2020. The senior quarterback started all seven games last season and threw for 1,326 yards and seven touchdowns while completing 62 percent of his passes. Vantrease threw for 353 yards against Miami (OH) and 365 yards against Ball State, becoming just the second quarterback in UB's FBS era to throw for 353+ yards twice in the same season.

Vantrease isn't the only UB quarterback with starting experience. Junior Matt Myers started the first five games of the 2019 season before suffering an injury. As a starter in 2019, he threw for 602 yards and six touchdowns and rushed for 94 yards and two other scores. He did see some limited action in 2020 as a reserve.

Trevor Byczynski is in his third season with the Bulls, but has yet to see any extensive action.

The Bulls also welcome back redshirt-freshman Casey Case and walk on Aaron Chase to go along with newcomer Brian Plummer.

RUNNING BACK

One of the biggest issues the Bulls will need address in 2021 is replacing All-American running back Jaret Patterson. The former star running back left UB second in school history in rushing with 3,884 yards and a program-best 52 rushing touchdowns in only three seasons.

Kyle Vantrease

Fortunately, the Bulls have another All-MAC running back in the stable in Kevin Marks. A senior, Marks ranks seventh in school history in career rushing with 2,621 yards and sixth in school history with 28 rushing touchdowns. Marks averaged 106 yards per game last season en route to earning All-MAC Third Team honors.

Dylan McDuffie will likely get more carries this season after injuries slowed him a bit in 2020. While McDuffie only appeared in three games in 2020, he did average 6.5 yards per carry in 10 games in 2019.

Ron Cook will also likely play a more prominent role in 2021. He had 20 carries for 80 yards last season. Cook is very athletic and excelled on special teams, earning All-MAC honors as a punt/kick returner in 2020.

Kevin Marks

Jake Fuzak

Ron Cook

Taylor Riggins

Caron Robinson looked strong in his one game as a true freshman in 2020. He had five carries for 36 yards against Akron.

Walk-on Tajay Ahmed is in his third season with the program. On his first career carry, he ripped off a 44-yard touchdown run against Akron.

Redshirt-freshman Kolbe Burrell as well as true freshman Mike Washington, who enrolled in January, and freshman Al-Jay Henderson will also add depth at the running back position.

WIDE RECEIVER

The Bulls will need to replace two-time All-MAC wide receiver Antonio Nunn who led the Bulls in receiving each of the last two seasons.

Jovany Ruiz emerged as a nice surprise last season. Orginally a walk on, Ruiz, seeing the first action of his career, ranked second on the team in receptions with 20, including his first career touchdown catch.

Dominic Johnson is entering his third full season as a wide receiver after starting his career as a quarterback. Johnson started four games in 2020 and had five catches for 43 yards.

Carlton Todd is in his third season with the Bulls after transferring from Iowa Central Community College. While he didn't register a catch in 2020, he did have 10 receptions for 115 yards in 2019.

Bernard Porter started four games in 2020 and had a catch on the season. He will likely take on a more expanded role in 2021.

Marlyn Johnson is in his third season with the Bulls. While he didn't have a catch last season, he did have three catches for 67 yards in 2019 and showed the ability to stretch the field.

Sophomore Javien Cuff and redshirt-junior Tyree O'Neil both continue to develop and will look to play a larger role in 2021.

New addition Quian Williams transferred from Eastern Michigan where he had 76 catches for 983 yards and eight touchdowns over the last two seasons.

Sophomore JUCO speedster Khamran Laborn as well as freshmen Ali Fisher and Jamari Gassett will also look to make an impact.

TIGHT END

The Bulls return four tight ends that saw game action last season.

Jake Molinich may only have one catch in his career, but he has been a key component in the Bulls running game. Molinich has started 15 games over the last two seasons and helped block for UB's record-breaking rushing attack.

Cole Burniston and Trevor Borland played in all seven games last season as members of the special teams unit. They will like both see their roles increase in 2021.

Tyler Stephens saw action in four games last season. The sophomore didn't register a catch, but at 6-6, 230 lbs., he shows a lot of potential.

Freshman Carson Williams will also join the Bulls in preseason camp.

OFFENSIVE LINE

The offensive line has been the strength of the UB football team over the last few years and fortunately for the Bulls, four starters are returning.

A pair of starters are taking advantage of the extra year granted by the NCAA. Jake Fuzak, an All-MAC selection in 2020, returns at right tackle and Jack Klenk started all seven games at right guard in 2020.

The Bulls will need to replace All-American left tackle Kayode Awosika who graduated. Junior Gabe Wallace and sophomore Caelan Shepard are two candidates who will likely challenge for the job.

Junior Alain Schaerer as well as sophomore Bence Polgar also return for their third seasons and could also play bigger roles in 2021.

There are also a number of young offensive linemen that redshirted last season and have a year of development under their belts, including Deondre Doiron and Tyler Doty.

In addition, freshmen Janik Ogunlade will get valuable work in the spring after enrolling at UB in January.

Looking to add experience on the offensive line the Bulls brought in a pair of JUCO transfrers, Jack Hasz and Austin Lee.

Also new to the Bulls this season are freshmen Nolan Gorczyca, Rowan McGwin and Matt Pajuste.

DEFENSIVE LINE

The Bulls will return three of four starters on the defensive line from season ago and will also return a first-team All-MAC defensive end from 2019 who missed last season with an injury.

Taylor Riggins is back after missing 2020 with an injury. The senior defensive end was an All-MAC First Team selection in 2019 after totaling 50 tackles, 10.5 tackles for loss, 8.5 sacks and three fumble recoveries. He ranked second in the league in sacks.

Injuries forced George Wolo into the starting lineup as a true freshman and he didn't disappoint. The young defensive tackle played in all seven games, including starts in the final four of the season. He ranked second on the team in sacks with three to go along with 27 tackles, four tackles for loss and two forced fumbles.

With injuries at the defensive tackle position in 2020, walk-on Dom Polizzi stepped up and did an admirable job filling in. He remained in the rotation even when the line was at full strength.

Eric Black is a player that emerged as a factor in 2020. With the loss of Riggins to injury, Black was elevated to starter and started every game for the Bulls in 2020. He had 12 tackles, 3.5 tackles for loss, three sacks and a forced fumble. He had two sacks on Marshall's final drive to help the Bulls win the 2020 Camellia Bowl.

Max Michel was a key member of the defensive end rotation in 2020. The junior played in all seven games and earned the start against Marshall in the Camellia Bowl. He had 17 tackles, four tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks and a forced fumble on the season.

Kyler Laing showed promise in his redshirt-freshman campaign in 2020. He had 17 tackles, four tackles for loss, 2.5 sacks and a force fumble while showing good speed off the edge.

Sophomore C.J. Bazille and redshirt-freshmen Bryce Jordan-Maith and Michael Tetteh will also add depth on the defensive line.

Transfers, Josh Rogers (Texas A&M), Daishon Folsom (Hutchinson CC), Daymond Williams (Cisco College) and Tyler Carter (Fullerton College) will look to make an immediate impact.

Freshman defensive tackle Floyd Dozier and defensive ends Chris King and Anton Ricumstrict are also joining the Bulls this season.

LINEBACKERS

The linebacker unit is led by two-time team captain and All-MAC First Team pick James Patterson. The middle linebacker led the Bulls in tackles in 2020 with 63 and added a tackle for loss, interception and forced fumble.

Kadofi Wright returns as the starter at outside linebacker after accepting the extra year awarded by the NCAA. Last season, he had 24 tackles, three tackles for loss, an interception and a team-best seven pass breakups. He was an All-MAC selection in 2019.

Tim Terry enjoyed the best season of his career in 2020. In seven games, he had 21 tackles and a fumble return for a touchdown. He should factor in to the starting role at outside linebacker.

Keith Woetzel came to Buffalo prior to the 2020 season as graduate transfer from Lehigh. Unfortunately, a injury in the preseason forced him to miss all of 2020. Now heathy, the former All-American linebacker looks to make an impact in 2021.

Caleb Tate should also factor in at linebacker after seeing action in seven games, primarily on special teams, last season.

Transfer Tra Wilkins, who spent the 2019 season at Kentucky will look to make an immediate impact.

Also adding depth at linebacker include Shaun Dolac, Fabian Weitz, Sean Colgan as well as a true freshman Jaillen Howze.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

The safety unit will be led by junior Cory Gross. He had a breakout season in 2020, starting six games and ranking second on the team in tackles with 42 and adding a tackle for loss and an interception. He will likely return to his starting role in 2021.

E.J. Brown is in his second season with the Bulls after transferring from Iowa Central Community College and beginning his career at West Virginia. He had 18 tackles, a tackle for loss and a forced fumble in 2020.

Marcus Fuqua worked his way into the lineup in 2020 and could see a more expanded role in 2021. He had nine tackles and an interception in six games last season.

The Bulls will also look to Dylan Powell, Evan Gantley and Jalen McNair to add depth at safety.

Injuries forced the Bulls to shuffle their lineup at cornerback, giving a number of Bulls valuable experience in 2020.

Aapri Washington was injured in the preseason and was slow to return to the lineup. He did appear in four games and had four tackles and two pass breakups. The senior cornerback started all 13 games in 2019 and six games in 2018.

Ali Abbas was also likely to be a starter in 2020, but he, too, suffered an injury in the preseason. He did see action in six games and had five tackles. Now fully healthy, expect Abbas to challenge for the starting job.

With injuries to their expected starters in 2020, Isaiah King was elevated to a starter and had a solid season for the Bulls. He started all seven games, had 22 tackles, a pass breakup and returned a fumble for a touchdown.

Wankeith Akin is another experienced cornerback eager to get back on the field after suffering a season-ending injury prior to the 2020 campaign.

Sophomores Mark Davis and Larry Robbins also missed 2020 with injuries, but should be factors in 2021.

Freshman Demarco Cuffey enrolled in January, allowing him to get valuable reps this spring.

Newcomers to the defensive backfield include freshmen Jibrahn Claude and Quillen Howze. In addition Ja'Marcus Ingram, a transfer from Texas Tech, should challenge for a starting role and add experience.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Alex McNulty returns as the Bulls starting kicker after earning All-MAC Third Team honors a season ago. With the Bulls' offense proficient in scoring touchdowns, he wasn't asked to kick too many field goals. He did go 1-for-4 on the year in field goals and was a perfect 42-for-42 on extra points.

Jackson Baltar also returns this season as a kicker for the Bulls. He was 1-for-1 on extra points in 2020 and can also be utilized as a punter if needed.

Evan Finegan returns as UB's punter. He averaged 38.8 yards per punt last season and had five punts downed inside the 20-yard line.

Jeremiah Riordan returns for his fifth season as long snapper on field goals and Evan Davis is back for his third season as long snapper on punts.

MAURICE "MO" LINGUIST

HEAD COACH
BAYLOR, 2006
FIRST SEASON

Considered by many as one of the top young minds in all of college football, Maurice Linguist was named the University at Buffalo's 26th head coach on May 8, 2021. It is a homecoming of sorts for Linguist who was the Bulls' defensive backs coach in 2012 and 2013.

Linguist is regarded as one of the nation's top recruiters and has excelled in coaching at both the Power Five level and the NFL. He came to UB from Michigan where he served a brief stint as defensive backs coach/co-defensive coordinator since January. He joined the U-M coaching staff after spending the 2020 season as cornerbacks coach with the NFL's Dallas Cowboys.

In Dallas, Linguist directed a secondary that forced 10 interceptions while allowing the fifth-fewest passing first downs in the league (180). The Cowboys were also ranked in the top half of the league in pass yards allowed (11th), completion percentage against (10th), and takeaways (ninth). Linguist coached rookie cornerback Trevon Diggs (three interceptions) to a strong first season in the league. Three of Dallas' four leading tacklers in 2020 were starters in the secondary, including former Wolverine Jourdan Lewis who set a career-high with 59 stops.

Linguist has worked with college secondaries at nine programs. Prior to heading to the NFL, he coached cornerbacks at Texas A&M (2018-19), defensive backs at Minnesota (2017), safeties at Mississippi State (2016) and defensive backs at Iowa State (2014-15)

At A&M, Linguist's secondaries limited opportunities for opponents and played tight coverage in key situations. Teams converted just 31.2 percent of third down tries (102-of-326) over his two seasons and A&M ranked ninth nationally in that category in 2018. The Aggies intercepted their opponents 19 times in his two seasons and made a habit of getting off the field. During the 2018 season, the defense was top-15 nationally in first downs allowed (221) and faced the fewest snaps against among all SEC teams.

Linguist helped the Aggies produce back-to-back top-six recruiting classes nationally in 2019 and 2020. He was the lead recruiter for five-star safety Jaylon Jones, the first five-star defensive back to sign with Texas A&M.

In his season at Minnesota, Linguist's secondary helped anchor a defense that finished No. 11 nationally with 174.5 yards allowed per game after listing 73rd in the NCAA a year earlier. The unit surrendered 16 touchdowns, a top-25 figure nationally and also ranked among the nation's best in first downs allowed (11th) and total defense (30th).

LINGUIST COACHING EXPERIENCE

2021-	Buffalo (Head Coach)
2021	Michigan (Defensive Backs/Co-Defensive Coord.)
2020	Dallas Cowboys (Cornerbacks)
2018-19	Texas A&M (Cornerbacks)
2017	Minnesota (Defensive Backs)
2016	Mississippi State (Safeties)
2015	Iowa State (DBs/Passing Game Cooridnator)
2014	Iowa State (Defensive Backs)
2013	Buffalo (DBs/Passing Game Cooridnator)
2012	Buffalo (Defensive Backs)
2009-11	James Madison (Safeties)
2008	Valdosta State (Defensive Backs/Special Teams)
2007	Baylor (Graduate Assistant/Safeties)

Linguist was the lead recruiter for Rashod Bateman, the Big Ten's Wide Receiver of the Year. Linguist was promoted to assistant head coach following the 2017 season before accepting a position at Texas A&M.

At Mississippi State, Linguist led the safeties group which was responsible for seven of the team's 14 interceptions. Three safeties eclipsed the 50-tackle mark for the Bulldogs: Brandon Bryant (62, three PBUs), Kivon Coman (58, four PBUs), and Mark McLaurin (51, seven PBUs) were among the team's leading tacklers. The defense scored four touchdowns (No. 8, NCAA) and totaled 14 interceptions (No. 35, NCAA) during the 2016 season.

Prior to his time in Starkville, Linguist coached defensive backs at Iowa State (2014-15). He coached players to three All-Big 12 honors in his two seasons at Iowa State, including safety Kamari Cotton-Moya, a first-team All-American freshman team selection by the Football Writers' Association of America (FWAA). Cotton-Moya led the team in tackles and was named the conference's Freshman of the Year on defense. Linguist would help direct cornerback Brian Peavy to be a finalist for the award the following year.

In his time at UB, Linguist helped the Bulls finish second in the MAC East and reach the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl in 2013, at the time, the program's second bowl appearance. The unit ranked second in the league in interceptions (15), points per game allowed (24.4), and yards per game allowed (382.2). Linguist coached Najja Johnson to first-team all-conference honors and a career total of 38 pass breakups, second in program history. Johnson led the MAC in interceptions the year earlier as part of a Bulls unit that was tops in the conference in pass completion percentage allowed while ranking second in pass defense.

Linguist spent three years at James Madison, helping the program pull in the top FCS recruiting class during the 2012 cycle while the team reached the second round of the NCAA Football Championship Series Playoffs. Linguist's first full-time position was at Valdosta State, working with defensive backs and special teams. The Blazers went 9-3 and earned a No. 12 national ranking in Division II.

Linguist began as a graduate assistant at Baylor, his alma mater, working as a graduate assistant with the strong safeties and rover backs. During his career at Baylor, he was a defensive MVP and honorable mention All-Big 12 selection. He made 24 starts in 42 appearances as a strong safety from 2003-06. A native of Dallas, Texas, Linguist graduated from Baylor with degrees in communications (2006) and a master's in health, human performance and recreation (2007). He was an Academic All-Big 12 honoree.

Linguist and his wife, Stacie, have one daughter, Maura, and one son, Lance.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING...

"It's my honor to welcome our new Head Football Coach, Maurice "Mo" Linguist and his family back to Buffalo," said Alnutt. "He is a person of high integrity, a great family man, a relentless recruiter and a proven winner who checked all the boxes during this critical time for UB Football. His ability to connect with young men and develop them to excel both on and off the field has been proven throughout his career. He is a rising star in this business who is more than prepared to lead our football program to greater heights. I'm extremely excited for the future of UB Football!"

- UB Athletic Director Mark Alnutt

"I'm beyond excited that the UB football program brought Coach Mo back. He's a guy that will guide the young men on the field and off of it. Being around him for the time that I was, I learned his leadership qualities and character speak very loudly, positively and effectively."

- UB All-American and NFL All-Pro Khalil Mack

"Mo Linguist is a tremendous young coach with great energy, passion and personality. He has phenomenal teaching skills and excellent personal skills. You have an outstanding football coach and an even better person. Go Bulls!"

- Mike McCarthy, Dallas Cowboys Head Coach

"I am happy for Mo Linguist and his family on this opportunity to be the head coach at the University at Buffalo. We are excited for Coach Mo and know that he will do great things as a head coach. I take great pride in the success of those on our staff who have moved into head coaching positions and know that there are those presently on our staff who will move into head coaching positions in the near future."

- Jim Harbaugh, Michigan Head Football Coach

"Mo is a remarkable leader. His ability to communicate and connect with anyone who enters his orbit has served him well throughout his career and will be a tremendous asset to UB and the Western New York community."

- Allen Greene, Auburn Athletic Director

SHANE MONTGOMERY

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS
NC STATE '90
FIRST SEASON AT BUFFALO

Shane Montgomery, no stranger to the Mid-American Conference, begins his first season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He brings nearly 30 years of Division I coaching experience to Buffalo, which includes four years as an FBS head coach and 14 years as an offensive coordinator at both the FCS and FBS levels.

Montgomery most recently spent two seasons at James Madison where he called plays for one of the FCS' top-ranked offenses. The Dukes ranked 3rd in scoring in 2019 (40.0) and 14th in 2020-21 (33.6). JMU was 10th nationally in his first season in total offense (465.8) and 12th in the FCS in his second season (447.5).

The 2020-21 season, in which the Dukes reached the FCS semifinals, saw them rank second in the country on fourth down (85.7%), sixth in rushing (232.6), yards per completion (14.82) and time of possession (34:20), seventh in pass efficiency (156.28) and 10th on third down (48.4%).

Two offensive players earned All-America laurels following the program's first spring season in running back Percy Agyei-Obese and left tackle Raymond Gillespia. Four Dukes earned All-CAA honors in Agyei-Obese, Gillespie, offensive linemen Truvell Wilson and wide receiver Kris Thornton.

In 2019, The Dukes led the country in completion percentage (70.6%) and fourth-down offense (88.9%) while also ranking second on third down (53.6%), third in first downs (24.81), fourth in pass efficiency (169.44), sixth in the red zone (91.7%), seventh in time of possession (33:14) and 10th in rushing (242.9).

The Dukes also led the CAA in total offensive touchdowns (76), rushing touchdowns (43) and yards per pass attempt (9.1) and was second in yards per carry (5.0).

Four offensive Dukes earned All-America honors, including CAA Offensive Player of the Year Ben DiNucci and Touchdown Club of Richmond Offensive Lineman of the Year Liam Fornadel. Also earning All-America laurels were Percy Agyei-Obese and Mac Patrick.

He also saw eight offensive athletes make the all-conference team. In addition to DiNucci, Fornadel, Agyei-Obese and Patrick, Brandon Polk and Dylan Stapleton were Second Team All-CAA honorees, while Jawon Hamilton and Truvell Wilson were Third Team selections.

Montgomery's quarterbacks group was led by DiNucci, who paced the country in completion percentage and passed for better than 3,400 yards with 29 touchdowns and only six interceptions. The senior signal called produced a 169.5 passer rating and completed nearly 71% of his passes.

Montgomery came to JMU after spending the 2018 season as offensive coordinator at Charlotte. 49ers won five games, which was a program-record at the FBS level. They also finished .500 in Conference USA for the first time, finishing with a 4-4 league record.

Prior to his stint with the 49ers, Montgomery led the offense for eight seasons (2010-17) at Youngstown State, coaching the top quarterback and some of the best running backs in school history. In each of his eight seasons, YSU threw and rushed for over 2,000 yards. The Penguins achieved the program's top-four outputs of total offense during his tenure (2011, 2016, 2010, 2017) while Montgomery called the plays.

Montgomery helped four-year starter Kurt Hess rewrite the YSU record books during his first four seasons as offensive coordinator. Hess finished his career as the school's all-time leader in completions (706), attempts (1,135), yards (8,925), touchdown passes (75), yards per game (198.4), 200-yard passing games (24), passer rating (144.96), touchdown responsibility (87), four-touchdown passing games (six), total offensive yards (9,459) and total offense per game (210.2).

He was part of YSU's run to the national championship in 2016, which included playoff victories against Samford, at Jacksonville State, versus Wofford and at Eastern Washington before falling to JMU in the title game. That season ended a 10-year playoff drought for the Penguins.

Before his run in Youngstown, Montgomery spent one season as offensive coordinator at Akron (2009) and eight years at Miami (OH), serving as offensive coordinator (2001-04) and head coach (2005-08). He also led the offensive during his four years at the helm.

While at Miami, Montgomery mentored two-time Super Bowl champion quarterback Ben Roethlisberger, who set 21 program records in three seasons before being the 11th overall pick in the 2004 NFL Draft. Roethlisberger threw for over 10,000 yards and 80 touchdowns in his three-year collegiate career. Montgomery was also a two-time finalist for the Frank Broyles Award, which goes to the nation's top assistant coach.

In his four seasons as head coach with the RedHawks, he guided the team to a share of two Mid-American Conference East division titles (2005, 2007). His first season as head coach saw Miami win five of its last six games, place 11 players on the all-conference team and have seven players move on to the NFL the following season.

Montgomery also had stops as an assistant at Chattanooga (1993-00) and at NC State (1991-92) where he was a quarterback from 1986-89. He was a three-year starter and led the Wolfpack to two bowl berths, earning Offensive MVP honors at the 1988 Peach Bowl and 1989 Copper Bowl. He was a Second Team All-ACC selection in 1989 and finished his career with over 5,000 passing yards and 31 touchdowns.

He played one season in the World League of American Football and served as a graduate assistant to Dick Sheridan at NC State in 1991 and 1992.

He and his wife, Sandy, have two sons, Tanner and Trent. Tanner is a catcher for the Bridgewater baseball team and Trent is a pitcher at Catawba College.

JOE CAUTHEN

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/LINEBACKERS
STEPHEN F. AUSTIN '90
FIRST SEASON AT BUFFALO

With over 30 years of coaching experience, Joe Cauthen begins his first season as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at UB. He most recently serving as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at the University of Houston over the past two seasons. His defenses are known to play an aggressive, attacking style.

Prior to being hired at Houston, Cauthen spent five successful seasons as defensive coordinator at Arkansas State. The Red Wolves ranked among the top 21 in the nation in defensive touchdowns each of his final four seasons with 22 total over that span. The 2015 campaign saw A-State's defense record an FBS-high eight touchdowns, while also leading the country in interceptions with a school FBS-era-record 26.

During Cauthen's time at Arkansas State, the Red Wolves totaled 79 interceptions, the seventh-best total nationally in that span.

In addition, his attacking defense was a menace behind the line as Arkansas State totaling at least five tackles for loss in 39 of its last 42 games and ranked in the top 25 nationally in TFLs between 2016 and 2018, including 13th in 2018.

Prior to A-State, Cauthen most recently spent the previous three seasons as an assistant coach at Middle Tennessee. Cauthen served as the Blue Raiders' defensive line coach in 2012 and 2013 after working as the linebackers coach in 2011. He was also the special teams coordinator all three years he spent at MTSU.

The Blue Raiders put together back-to-back eight win seasons Cauthen's last two years at the school and played in the Armed Forces Bowl in 2013. He tutored a pair of all-conference players during his time as defensive line coach, including Jimmy Staten in 2013 and Omar McLendon in 2012.

MTSU?proved to be an opportunistic defense in 2013 with Cauthen a part of the coaching staff as the Blue Raiders ranked fifth in the nation in turnovers gained with 33, including 15 interceptions and 18 fumble recoveries. MTSU?also ranked 17th nationally in red zone defense (.755) and 19th nationally in passing defense (203.4 ypg). His defensive line also helped the team rack up 67 tackles for loss and 27 sacks.

In his first year guiding the defensive line, Cauthen molded a young group that showed marked improvement from 2011. McLendon earned all-conference honors while Kendall Dangerfield and Staten enjoyed career years.

Cauthen made his way to Middle Tennessee after spending the previous four seasons as the defensive coordinator at Valdosta State where he was on the same staff as Linguist. In 2010, Cauthen helped lead Valdosta State to a Gulf South Conference Championship after his defense finished ranked 23rd nationally in total defense and 18th in scoring defense. His unit was led by All-American and National Defensive Player of the Year Larry Dean. Dean, who had 122 tackles, became the first player in school history to earn the player of the year award.

Cauthen's defense was dominant during the 2008 season as it finished 31st nationally in total defense and 24th in scoring defense. The Blazers allowed opponents just 304.6 yards per game during his second season with the school while surrendering just 18.6 points per outing. On the rushing side, the Blazers only allowed 108.3 yards per game to rank 31st in the nation while opponents found throwing the ball even tougher as they were held to a 104.91 efficiency rating, a number that ranked VSU 20th nationally.

In 2007, Cauthen directed a unit that finished 14th in the nation in scoring defense at 17.6 points per game as VSU won its second national title. Cauthen's knowledge of the defensive side of the ball was no more evident than in the 2007 NCAA Championship game, where his scheme held Northwest Missouri State running back Xavier Omon, who had averaged 236 yards a game in three previous playoff contests, to just 63 yards on 27 carries, an average of 2.3 yards per carry.

Cauthen's aggressive, ball-hawking defensive approach helped VSU lead the nation in passes intercepted with 27 in 2007 while finishing second in turnovers gained with 40. Additionally, Valdosta State was 25th in passing efficiency defense (105.9) and 33rd in rushing defense (120.9 yards per game).

Prior to Valdosta State, Cauthen had coaching stints at Texas A&M-Commerce, Stephen F. Austin and Trinity Valley Community College.

Cauthen earned his Bachelor's in Health and Kinesiology with a minor in Biology from Stephen F. Austin in 1990. He also obtained a Master's in Sports Administration from the University of Texas-Tyler in 1997. Cauthen is married to the former Annittia Chapman and they share four children -- Brooklyn, Hayden, Dakota and Jackson.

CHRIS WHITE

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR
COLBY '90
FIRST SEASON AT BUFFALO

Chris White begins his first season as special teams coordinator after coaching at the high school, collegiate or professional level since 1993. Most recently, White served as analyst at Michigan in 2020.

Prior to Michigan, White spent the 2019 season as tight ends coach for the Detroit Lions. He spent the 2017 and 2018 seasons as an assistant at the University of Connecticut.

White went to UConn from the University of Iowa where he was the special teams coordinator/running backs coach for four seasons. During his tenure with the Hawkeyes, White helped the team to four bowl appearances, including a berth in the 2016 Rose Bowl.

Prior to his stint in Iowa City, White was an assistant special teams coach for the Minnesota Vikings from 2009-12. He helped the Vikings win the 2009 NFC North Division Championship and Minnesota also earned a berth in a 2012 Wild Card game.

From 2000-08, White served in several capacities at Syracuse. He was the special teams coordinator/tight ends coach from 2000-03, the recruiting coordinator/tight ends coach from 2003-04 and the recruiting coordinator/wide receivers coach from 2005-08. The Orange defeated Kansas State in the 2001 Insight.com Bowl and won the Big East Championship in 2004.

The Groveland, MA native also spent time on staff at Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo (defensive coordinator/linebackers/special teams coordinator) from 1999-00 and at UNLV (special teams coordinator/inside linebackers) from 1996-98.

A 1990 graduate of Colby College in Waterville, Maine, White was a four-year starter for the football and baseball teams and went on to earn his master's degree in education from Syracuse in 1992.

After receiving his master's degree, White served as a graduate assistant/quarterbacks coach at Arkansas State from 1992-93 and as an assistant coach/quarterbacks for Holy Cross in Worcester, Mass. from 1993-94.

From 1994-96, White was the head football coach at Bishop Manogue High School in Reno, NV

White and his wife, Angela have two daughters, Payton and Riley.

MIKE DANIELS

RUNNING BACKS/RECRUITING COORDINATOR
CINCINNATI '07
FIRST SEASON AT BUFFALO

No stranger to the UB football program, Mike Daniels was hired as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator by Coach Linguist prior to the 2021 season - his second stint with the Bulls after also serving as UB's running backs coach in 2010. He returns to Buffalo following brief stints at Akron and Army.

From 2017-2020, Daniels was the head coach of his alma mater Princeton High School in Cincinnati, OH. He helped turn around the Vikings program, leading them to a 6-2 overall record including 6-1 in the Greater Miami Conference in 2020. Princeton was 6-5 in 2019, reaching the postseason for the first time since 2007.

Daniels was the wide receivers coach at Kennesaw State from 2014 to 2016. He led the wide receivers to an impressive inaugural season, as the Owls' offense averaged 136.8 receiving yards per game. The group totaled 79 receptions and 10 touchdown catches throughout a 6-5 campaign. The receivers also averaged 19.1 yards per catch on the season.

Under Daniels' guidance, redshirt freshman Justin Sumpter flourished as Kennesaw State's primary aerial target. He caught 26 passes for 525 yards and three touchdowns, averaging 20.2 yards a receptions to rank sixth in the country in yards per receptions. Sumpter had three catches of 46 or more yards, including a 69-yard TD receptions in the inaugural game at East Tennessee State.

Daniels also guided one of four seniors on the team, wide out P.J. Stone, to become KSU's first graduate in program history. Stone earned Big South Conference All-Academic honors and graduated magna cum laude with a 3.75 GPA and majored in exercise science.

Daniels joined the KSU coaching staff after spending three seasons (2011-13) as running backs coach at Statesboro High School in Georgia. He spent the 2013 season as offensive coordinator. While coaching at Statesboro High, Daniels and the Blue Devils compiled a three-year record of 28-6 (.823) and advanced to the state playoffs each season.

Daniels' coached one season (2010) at the University at Buffalo where he served as the Bulls' running backs coach and academic liaison. He began his coaching career at Alcorn State where he worked as tight ends coach from December 2007 to June 2008.

Prior to arriving at Buffalo, Daniels was a graduate assistant/wide receivers coach at his alma mater, the University of Cincinnati. That season, the Bearcats went 12-0 in the regular season, captured the 2009 Big East Conference title and received a BCS Bowl berth to the 2010 Allstate Sugar Bowl.

Daniels was a four-year letterwinner at Cincinnati from 2003-07 where he was a triple threat as a wide receiver, running back and return man.

Daniels served as a team captain and earned the Jim Kelly Spirit Award in 2007 while playing for head coach Brian Kelly. He was a multiple-year honoree on the Bearcats Academic Honor Roll en route to earning his bachelor's degree in criminal justice in 2007.

DALLAS BAKER

WIDE RECEIVERS
FLORIDA '06
FIRST SEASON AT BUFFALO

A standout receiver at the University of Florida, Dallas Baker begins his first season as the Bulls' wide receivers coach. He spent the last four seasons coaching the wide receivers at Marshall.

In 2017 and 2018, he mentored two-time first-team All-Conference USA pick Tyre Brady, who was one of the Thundering Herd's most dynamic talents on the outside en route to signing a free agent contract upon completing his career in Huntington. As a senior, Brady led the team in receiving again (1,002 yards), and became the first Herd player to eclipse 1,000 yards since Tommy Shuler in 2014. Brady joined an exclusive list of players who have led the team in receiving in consecutive years. The last five: Shuler, Aaron Dobson, Cody Slate, Nate Poole and Randy Moss. Marcel Williams also earned honorable mention All-C-USA acclaim from his slot receiver position in back-to-back seasons.

Baker went to Huntington after holding the same position at Warner University, in addition to his title of passing game coordinator.

Baker played for the Florida Gators from 2003-06 and was a two-time captain. As a senior, Baker delivered career-highs for receptions (60), receiving yards (920), and receiving touchdowns (10), and was a first-team All-Southeastern Conference (SEC) selection. He helped lead the Gators to its first SEC title in six years and their second national championship, a game in which he caught a touchdown pass in a 41-14 rout of Ohio State in the 2007 BCS Championship game.

He graduated from the University of Florida in December 2006 with a bachelor's degree in health and human performance.

The Pittsburgh Steelers chose Baker in the 2007 NFL Draft, where he played from 2007-09, winning a Super Bowl with the organization following the 2008 season.

Baker joined the Jacksonville Sharks of the Arena Football League for the 2010 season and played for the CFL's Montreal Alouettes and Saskatchewan Roughriders in 2011.

Baker was born in New Smyrna Beach, Florida, where he was a star wide receiver for New Smyrna Beach High School. In 2001, he set the single-season Barracudas' record with 17 touchdowns, 67 catches and 1,142 yards.

RON WHITCOMB

TIGHT ENDS
FLORIDA '06
FIRST SEASON AT BUFFALO

Ron Whitcomb was hired as tight ends coach after spending last season as UB's scouting coordinator and offensive analyst. The Rochester native spent the previous 12 seasons as quarterbacks coach at Old Dominion.

Whitcomb guided quarterback Blake LaRussa to a 3,000-yard season that saw the junior signal-caller finish No. 14 in FBS with 274.1 passing yards per game. That number jumps to 300 yards per game when taking out the two games where he played sparingly. In ODU's 49-35 stunner over No. 13 Virginia Tech, LaRussa passed for 495-yards and four touchdowns. The 495-yards was a C-USA high in 2018 and the second most ever allowed by a Tech defense. LaRussa earned multiple National Player of the Week awards and was named C-USA Player of the Week. LaRussa finished second in C-USA with 274.1 yards per game and led league quarterbacks with six, 300-yard passing games.

LaRussa was the second quarterback in ODU history to throw for 3,000 yards in a single-season, throwing for 3,015, and joining current NFL QB Taylor Heinicke in that regard. LaRussa earned C-USA honorable mention honors, becoming the third ODU quarterback in the Monarchs' five years in the league to earn All-C-USA honors, joining Heinicke and David Washington.

A year after graduating senior quarterback David Washington, the ODU offense was taken over by true freshman Steven Williams in 2017. Williams' first career start came at Virginia Tech and the improvement each week from the then 17-year old was noticeable. In the final four games of the year, Williams completed 68 percent of his passes for 664 yards, two touchdowns and no turnovers, while rushing for 101 yards and two more touchdowns. Williams was named to the Conference USA All-Freshman Team.

Whitcomb groomed quarterback David Washington to the second-best touchdown to interception ratio in the country in 2016 to help ODU to a 10-3 overall record and victory in the Popeyes Bahamas Bowl. Washington passed for 2,836 yards and 31 touchdowns in his first full season as a starter, after playing wide receiver most of the previous two seasons.

Whitcomb guided current Washington Football player Taylor Heinicke to a tremendous four-year career as 2015 was the first time since 2011 that Heinicke was not behind center. Shuler Bentley and David Washington split the QB duties, combining to complete 234-for-432 for 2,2587 yards and 20 touchdowns. Bentley started the year at quarterback and led a come-from-behind win at Eastern Michigan in the opener and a win over Norfolk State before Washington came in vs. Charlotte for the second series, going 25-of-43 for 365 yards and four touchdowns for a dramatic 37-34 win over the 49ers. Washington led ODU to wins over UTSA and UTEP before suffering a season-ending injury at Southern Miss.

Whitcomb guided four-year starting quarterback Taylor Heinicke to one of the best statistical careers of any Division I quarterback ever. Heinicke ranks third all-time among FBS quarterbacks in total yards of offense with 16,279 and sixth in career passing yards with 14,959. Heinicke's 132 career touchdown tosses is fourth most all-time, just two behind Texas Tech's Graham Harrell for third place.

In 2012, the Monarchs led the FCS in scoring offense with 45.15 points per game, passing offense at 393.85 and total offense with 548.23 yards per game. Whitcomb helped lead Taylor Heinicke to the most prolific season by a quarterback in FCS history. Heinicke led the nation in passing yards, passing yards per game, touchdown passes, total TD's, total offense and points responsible for. Heinicke set FCS single-season record for passing yards and completions. Heinicke threw for 5,076 passing yards surpassing Steve McNair's record of 4,863 he set for Alcorn State in 1994. Heinicke's 398 completions broke Brett Gordon's mark of 385 he set in 2002 for Villanova. Heinicke won the Walter Payton Award given to the Best Player in the FCS, becoming just the second sophomore ever to win the award. The 2012 season also saw Heinicke earn CAA Offensive Player of the Year honors and first-team All-CAA honors. He received First-Team All-America honors by seven organizations and won the Dudley Award for the best Division I Player in the state of Virginia.

Under Whitcomb's watch, the Monarchs had a two-time Walter Payton Watch List member in Thomas DeMarco in 2010 and 2011 and the College Football Performance Awards FCS National Performer of the Year, Jerry Rice Award Runner-Up, and the Payton Award Winner in Heinicke.

Before joining the Old Dominion staff, Whitcomb was a four-year starter at the University of Maine from 2003-2006.

Whitcomb, departed as the Black Bears' all-time leader in completions (755), total offense (8,801) and touchdown passes (68). His 8,183 passing yards ranked second, as did his .592 completion percentage. One of three senior captains at Maine in 2006, Whitcomb was named the Atlantic-10 and Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Rookie of the Year as a redshirt freshman after passing for 2,428 yards and 21 touchdowns. The passing yardage was the most by a freshman in Atlantic-10 history and he also established a new school record with touchdown passes in 11 straight games.

A standout off the field as well, Whitcomb was honored as the 2006-07 Atlantic-10 Student-Athlete of the Year. He earned his B.S. in education from Maine in 2006 and a M.S. Ed. in educational leadership at Old Dominion University in 2009.

For the last three seasons, Whitcomb has participated in the annual Lauren's First and Goal Football Camp at Lafayette College. The one-day clinic features nearly 275 college coaches who volunteer their time to teach aspiring football players the in-and-outs of the game and raise money for Lauren's First and Goal, a charitable organization created to support pediatric brain tumor research and support local pediatric cancer services.

MATT STANSFIELD

OFFENSIVE LINE
DUQUESNE '07
FIRST SEASON AT BUFFALO

Matt Stansfield enters his first season as the Bulls' offensive line coach after spending the previous five seasons as run game coordinator and offensive line/tight ends coach at Duquesne. A former player and coach at Duquesne, he returned to his alma mater after serving as offensive coordinator at Waynesburg for four seasons.

Duquesne, which has ranked among the Top 50 nationally in rushing offense in each of the past five seasons, has seen five backs combine to post 33 100-yard games since Stansfield's return to The Bluff.

Last season, running back A.J. Hines capped his standout career becoming the program's all-time leading rusher with 4,629 career rushing yards. The running back earned his fourth consecutive All-NEC award, sharing the backfield with fellow All-NEC selection Mark Allen. The pair became the first two running backs to garner All-NEC honors in the same season since the Dukes joined the conference in 2008.

A big part of the the Duquesne duo's success running the ball was the Dukes' offensive line, keyed by All-NEC picks Sterling Jenkins and Gabe Spurlock. Stansfield and the Duquesne O-line ranked 26th in the country with the fewest sacks allowed at 1.55 per game.

In 2018, Stansfield and the Dukes' running game enjoyed a standout campaign which saw Duquesne claim its fifth NEC crown, as the Dukes earned their second Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Playoff berth and won their first FCS Playoff contest in program history.

Running back A.J. Hines garnered NEC Offensive Player of the Year honors and was recognized as a finalist for the STATS FCS Walter Payton Award for the top offensive player at the FCS level. He closed out the season third in the country in rushing yards and sixth in the nation in rushing touchdowns, tallying a program-record six-straight 100-yard rushing performances during a six-game winning streak for Duquesne.

Hines - who has earned three straight First Team All-NEC nods with three 1,000-yard seasons in a row - enters his senior season in 2019 as the FCS active leader in career rushing yards and rushing touchdowns.

Stansfield also coached a pair of All-NEC performers on the offensive line in Alex Conley and Matt Fitzpatrick, who helped pave the way for Hines' 20 100-yard rushing games over the last three seasons.

In 2017, the Dukes paced the NEC in rushing offense (198.5 ypg.) keyed by Hines, who posted his second consecutive 1,000-yard season.

In 2016, Hines ran for 100 yards seven times on his way to winning the STATS FCS Jerry Rice Award.

Prior to returning to Duquesne, Stansfield guided Waynesburg's offense to new heights, as the team averaged over 400 yards per game in 2014. In 2013, Waynesburg averaged 387.3 yards per game, including a 283.8 ypg. through the air. The 2012 offense featured a physical running attack that averaged a conference-best 201.9 yards per game while allowing just five quarterback sacks all season.

Prior to his appointment at Waynesburg, Stansfield was Duquesne's running backs coach and run game coordinator from 2009-11.

In 2011, Duquesne (9-2) rushed for an average of 212.8 yards per game - a mark that led the NEC and ranked 15th nationally. Then-junior Larry McCoy spearheaded the ground game with 1,381 yards. McCoy's 117.4 yards rushing per game ranked 11th nationally.

Prior to his stint at Duquesne, Stansfield spent one year (2008) at Howard University, where he worked with the school's defensive line.

Stansfield played center for Duquesne from 2003-07, where he was a member of five MAAC championship teams. The Meadville native, who served as a team captain as a senior, earned all-MAAC honors in 2006 & 2007. He was a Don Hansen honorable mention FCS Mid-Major All-American in 2006.

Stansfield graduated from Duquesne in 2007 with a degree in accounting. He added an MBA from his alma mater in 2010 and completed a second master's degree in education at Waynesburg in 2015.

Stansfield resides with his wife Jamie.

ROD OJONG

SAFETIES
MONMOUTH '12
FIRST SEASON AT BUFFALO

Rod Ojong begins his first season as safeties coach for the Bulls. He most recently spent the 2020 season as the defensive quality control coach at Georgia. The Bulldogs went 8-2 on the season, including a Peach Bowl victory over Cincinnati.

Prior to Georgia, Ojong spent the previous two seasons in the FCS ranks, coaching cornerbacks at Furman in 2019 and at Austin Peay in 2018. He helped lead Furman to an eight-win season and a spot in the FCS Playoffs in 2019.

Ojong was hired at Austin Peay after serving as a defensive graduate assistant at North Carolina during the 2016 and 2017 campaigns.

Prior to joining the Tar Heels' program, he was part of the defensive coaching staff at Memphis that helped the Tigers post a 9-4 record and earn an appearance in the 2015 Birmingham Bowl.

In 2014 he served as an assistant coach at West Georgia with the strong safeties.

Ojong coached the outside linebackers and also served as assistant strength and conditioning coach at Lindsey Wilson College in 2013, helping the Blue Raiders, in only their fourth season of football, finish 18th in the NAIA final poll.

He began his coaching career at Monmouth (Ill.) College, his alma mater, as a student assistant linebacker coach.

Ojong was a two-year letter winner and team captain at Monmouth College. He was an all-conference linebacker in 2011 and a member of two Midwest Conference championship teams.

He graduated from Monmouth College with a bachelor's degree in Physical Education in 2012.

DEANDRE THOMPSON

CORNERBACKS
TEXAS A&M '12
FIRST SEASON AT BUFFALO

DeAndre Thompson begins his first season as cornerbackes coach after spending two seasons at Campbell, most recently as cornerbacks coach.

In his second season at CU, despite playing all FBS opponents in an abbreviated 2020 slate, the Camels owned the No. 2 pass defense among FCS programs.

Thompson joined the Campbell football staff as assistant defensive backs coach in January 2019, helping guide the Camels to the Big South's top pass defense for the second straight season, allowing just 182.7 yards per game, also yielding the league's second-ranked red zone defense (82.9) in 2019.

Three Camel defensive backs picked up postseason all-conference honors, highlighted by Darion Slade being named First Team All-Big South, tallying 9.5 stops per game in conference play, tops among league defensive backs. Two more Campbell DBs were also named to Phil Steele's Big South all-conference team, with cornerback Kam Prewitt tabbed to the second team, while Dorian Jones was named third team all-conference.

Thompson came to Campbell after three seasons as a defensive graduate assistant at his alma mater, Texas A&M.

Thompson's main recruiting area will be Tennessee and Birmingham, Ala., as well as the 252 area code of North Carolina.

With the Aggies, Thompson coached under Kevin Sumlin in 2016 and 2017, as well as Jimbo Fisher in 2018. A&M won at least seven games each year with Thompson's aid, posting nine victories in 2018, including a 52-13 win over North Carolina State in the Gator Bowl to cap off the season.

He has also coached top talents Justin Evans, Armani Watts and Donovan Wilson. The Tampa Bay Buccaneers selected Evans in the second round (50th overall) in the 2017 NFL Draft after he was an All-SEC pick and Jim Thorpe Award semifinalist. Watts, a third team All-America and All-SEC performer, was drafted by the Kansas City Chiefs in the fourth round (124th overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft. Wilson was honored with the Aggie Heart Award and the Defensive Leadership Award in 2018, wrapping up his career as a three-year starter.

The Aggies ranked No. 3 in the FBS in rushing defense (95.2 yards per game), as well as No. 15 in red zone defense (75.7) during 2018.

Prior to his return to College Station, Thompson spent the 2015 season at Missouri, also as a graduate assistant, helping Mizzou reach as high as No. 20 in the polls, and finishing No. 4 in the nation in passing yards allowed (166.3 yards per game), and No. 28 in scoring defense (22.0 points per game).

Before entering the coaching ranks, Thompson was a teacher in the Houston area.

An Alief, Texas native, Thompson was a two-sport letterwinner with the Aggies as a member of the track & field team from 2008-10, while playing football from 2009-11 as a defensive back. He was named the Aggies' special teams captain in 2011.

On the gridiron, Thompson played three seasons with the Aggies, seeing time in 25 games as a special teamer and on the defensive side, making 21 total tackles. During the 2010 season, Thompson was awarded the 12th Man, an honor given to the player who most exemplified hard work, tireless effort and the Aggie Spirit, representing the entire fan base by being the only player to wear jersey number 12.

Following graduation from Texas A&M in 2012, completing his B.A. in leadership, education and development, Thompson used his final year of eligibility at Memphis, where he was also named a team captain in 2012.

At Memphis, he played in all of the Tigers' 12 games in 2012, making 19 stops, including 1.5 tackles for loss with a sack.

CEDRIC DOUGLAS

DEFENSIVE LINE
NORTHERN MICHIGAN '11
FIRST SEASON AT BUFFALO

Cedric Douglas enters his first season as UB's defensive line couch. He most recently spent two seasons as defensive line coach at Massachusetts. Douglas joined the program following time spent coaching at the scholastic and collegiate levels over the prior seven years.

Douglas' efforts are focused on the defensive tackles in 2021, an area that emerged as a strong point on the UMass defense in 2020.

Douglas worked with the youthful defensive line throughout the 2019 season, that featured 13 different starters throughout the season due to injuries. In total, the defensive line accounted for 215 tackles on the year, including 22.0 TFLs.

Most recently, Douglas helped Arkansas State reach back-to-back bowl games in 2017 and 2018, during which he was a graduate assistant working with the defensive line. His efforts in guiding the defensive line led to a pair of major awards for Red Wolves standouts as Ja'Von Rolland-Jones won 2017 Sun Belt Player of the Year and Ronheen Bingham followed as the 2018 Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year. Both also won All-Sun Belt First Team during their respective seasons.

The 2018 Arkansas State team went 8-5 overall, including five wins in the Sun Belt and earned a berth in the NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl. The defensive line featured prominently into the team's success as the Red Wolves' overall defense ranked among the nation's leaders in tackles for loss (No. 13), total defense (No. 17), first down defense (No. 21) and red zone defense (No. 27).

Arkansas State finished Douglas' first year with the team sporting a 7-5 overall record, a 6-2 mark in the Sun Belt and an appearance in the Camellia Bowl. The defense again ranked among the nation's most prolific, including a spot in the top-10 with 8.8 tackles for loss per game (No. 6).

Douglas spent 2016 as defensive line coach and academic liaison at Hutchinson Community College in Kansas. During his lone season at Hutchinson, the Blue Dragons defense ranked No. 12 in the nation in scoring defense (18.0 ppg), No. 10 in total defense (242.0 ypg) and No. 13 in rushing defense (91.0 ypg).

Hutchinson's defense at Hutchinson led the conference and ranked 14th nationally in sacks with 44, and the defensive line accounted for 24.5 of those to go along with 74.5 tackles for loss.

Douglas tutored two All-Region VI First Team selections, including Ronheen Bingham and J.J. Holmes. He also coached second team all-conference pick Tayland Humphrey, the No. 1 JUCO defensive tackle in the nation for his signing class.

Douglas went to Hutchinson after serving as the tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at Coffeyville Community College in Kansas during 2015. The Red Ravens posted an 8-3 record, while their offense ranked No. 5 in the nation in scoring (over 50 ppg) and No. 8 in total offense (over 480 ypg). He coached Second Team All-Jayhawk Conference selection Trevor Neloms as well.

The 2013 and 2014 seasons saw Douglas coach at Ave Maria University in Florida in multiple roles.

Working as the running backs and return specialist coach in 2013, Douglas was part of the staff that achieved the program's first winning season while also being recognized as the NAIA Independent Conference champions. The Ave Maria staff was selected to coach the NAIA All-Star Team in the NAIA vs. Division II All-Star game.

During 2013, Douglas tutored USCAA All-America running back Scott Jones, who led the team with 12 rushing touchdowns, while the kick return unit averaged 23.2 yards per attempt. Ave Maria went 8-2 overall on the year, the most wins in a single season in the history of the program.

Douglas was promoted to recruiting coordinator in 2014 and also moved from running backs coach to wide receivers coach. The 2014 season saw his receiving corps post over 2,200 receiving yards and 20 touchdowns, both of which led the conference. He coached Travis Makauskas, who led the league in receptions, yards and touchdowns and was selected for the 2014 NAIA vs. D2 All-Star Game.

Douglas began his coaching career at Lincoln High School in the fall of 2012, operating as the varsity outside linebackers and running backs coach. He helped lead the team to a 6-3 record, and the squad produced three all-conference players.

The Milan, Michigan, native was a member of the Northern Michigan University football team from 2007-11, appearing in 35 games as a linebacker and defensive end while recording 89 tackles, 9.0 sacks and two interceptions.

Douglas earned his bachelor's degree in special education/secondary education in 2011.

JEREMY COLE

HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH
FINDLAY '04
FIRST SEASON AT BUFFALO

Jeremy Cole enters his first season as head football strength and conditioning coach. Cole comes to Buffalo after spending the previous four seasons as the assistant strength coach at Minnesota.

Prior to Minnesota, Cole spent eight seasons at Rutgers, which included four years as the head of strength and conditioning.

At Rutgers, Cole directed all aspects of the football team's in-season and offseason training. The 2015 offseason marked a banner year for the Rutgers strength and conditioning program as the Scarlet Knights broke 19 previously established school records in the weight room. The record-setting performances were a focus of the program heading into the school's second season in the Big Ten.

In 2007, Cole was an assistant strength and conditioning coach at North Carolina and worked with the football team. He also spent one season working with football at Kansas as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Cole's career began in the NFL as he worked for the Indianapolis Colts from 2005-06.

Cole played safety at the University of Findlay and was a four-year letterwinner for the Oilers.

BUFFALO 49 , NORTHERN ILLINOIS 30

NOV. 4, 2020 • Huskie Stadium • DeKalb, IL

DEKALB, IL - The University at Buffalo football team scored three defensive touchdowns and forced five turnovers in a 49-30 win at Northern Illinois on Wednesday night in the season opener for both programs. It was the Bulls' first win against Northern Illinois since joining the Mid-American Conference in 1999, snapping an 11-game losing streak to the Huskies.

Early on, it looked like it was going to be an easy win as UB marched right down the field on its first possession and scored the game's first touchdown on a 5-yard run by Jaret Patterson less than three minutes into the game. A 17-yard touchdown pass from Kyle Vantrease to Antonio Nunn put the Bulls ahead, 14-3, after the first quarter.

Taking advantage of a short field, Northern Illinois was able to cut the lead to 14-10 early in the second quarter. However, Patterson struck again, this time on a 56-yard TD run, to put the Bulls up 21-10 with just over two minutes left in the half. The Huskies were able to score a touchdown late in the second quarter to cut the UB advantage to 21-16 at the break.

The UB defense was able to put the game away in the third quarter. First, linebacker Tim Terry scooped up a fumble by NIU quarterback Ross Bowers and dashed 46 yards for the score. On the Huskies' very next possession, James Patterson laid a big hit on NIU running back Erin Collins. He jarred the ball loose and it bounced right into the hands of Isaiah King who darted 42 yards for another UB touchdown. Suddenly, UB led 35-16 midway through the third quarter.

After Vantrease scored on a 4-yard run, less than two minutes later, to put the Bulls ahead, 42-16, Kadofi Wright cemented the victory with a 65-yard pick six early in the fourth quarter.

"It's always good to get a win on the road," head coach Lance Leipold said. "I thought we created some big plays when we needed them. The play of the defense in the third quarter really turned the tide for us. I'm really proud of them for making those plays."

The three defensive scores were the most by a UB team since having three defensive touchdowns at FAU in 2015.

It was a record-breaking night for Patterson who finished the game with 137 yards on 20 carries. His second touchdown of the game was the 35th rushing TD of his career, breaking the school record of 34 previously held by James Starks.

Antonio Nunn also had a big game for the Bulls, finishing with 102 yards and a touchdown on six receptions.

Malcolm Koonce led the defense with eight tackles, two tackles for loss and a sack. James Patterson also had eight tackles and a forced fumble. Cory Gross, Jr. and Tyree Thompson each had seven tackles for the Bulls.

The 49 points scored by the Bulls were the most by a UB team in a MAC road game since joining the conference in 1999.

BUFFALO 42, MIAMI (OH) 10

NOV. 10, 2020 • UB Stadium • Buffalo, NY

BUFFALO, NY – Kyle Vantrease threw for a career-high 353 yards and four touchdowns to lead the University at Buffalo football team to a 42-10 win over Miami (OH) on Tuesday night. The junior quarterback led an offensive attack that rolled up 558 yards of total offense against the defending MAC champions.

It was a defensive struggle early on as neither team scored in the first quarter. The RedHawks defense blinked first as Kevin Marks ripped off a 30-yard run early in the second quarter that gave the Bulls a first down at the Miami 12-yard line. Jaret Patterson capped the drive with a 2-yard touchdown run to give UB a 7-0 lead.

Less than two minutes later, UB struck again when Vantrease hit Trevor Wilson in stride for a 78-yard touchdown pass to put the Bulls ahead 14-0. Wilson had the best game of his young career, finishing with 103 yards receiving and a score.

Miami scored late in the second quarter to cut the UB lead to 14-7 at the break.

The second half was all UB as the Bulls scored on each of their first four possessions of the second half to put the game on ice. Patterson started the scoring on a 1-yard touchdown run in to make the score 21-7.

The Bulls mounted a seven-play, 82-yard drive on their next possession and took a 28-7 lead when Vantrease connected with Zac Lefebvre on a 25-yard touchdown pass.

Jovany Ruiz caught his first career touchdown late in the third quarter on a 5-yard pass from Vantrease. Ruiz, seeing the most playing time of his career, finished the game with three catches for 27 yards.

Antonio Nunn capped the scoring with an 82-yard pass from Vantrease early in the fourth quarter. It was another standout performance for Nunn who finished with a career-high 137 receiving yards on five catches. It was the senior wide out's second straight 100-yard receiving game.

Vantrease finished the game 17-of-27 for 353 yards and four touchdowns. The junior signal-caller was a perfect 9-for-9 for 229 yards and three touchdowns in the second half alone.

Marks led the rushing attack with 109 yards on 16 carries. Patterson added 73 yards and two scores on the ground.

Defensively, the Bulls held Miami (OH) to 258 yards of total offense. Roy Baker had his first career interception in the game. Logic Hudgens and Malcolm Koonce led the Bulls with five tackles, apiece. Kadofi Wright had two tackles, a tackle for loss and two pass breakups in the game.

"Tonight we were able to create a lot of big plays in the passing game," head coach Lance Leipold said. "The job of our offensive line was outstanding. I thought Kyle played great in the second half. Kevin Marks was another guys that made a difference with his running, especially in the second quarter."

BUFFALO 42 , BOWLING GREEN 17

NOV. 17, 2020 • Doyt Perry Stadium • Bowling Green, OH

BOWLING GREEN, OH – Jaret Patterson rushed for a school-record 301 yards and scored four touchdowns to help lead the University at Buffalo football team to a 42-17 win at Bowling Green on Tuesday night. Patterson broke his own record of 298 yards on the ground set against the Falcons last season.

A week after airing it out for a win over Miami (OH), the Bulls went back to their lethal run game to get the job done tonight. The Bulls rushed for a season-high 396 yards which was 12 yards more than their first two games combined. Kevin Marks also had a strong performance on the ground, rushing for 90 yards and a scored on 15 carries.

It didn't take long for the Bulls to get on the board as they took their opening possession and marched 74 yards on seven plays and took a 7-0 lead on Patterson's first touchdown of the game, a 17-yard run up the middle.

Bowling Green responded with a 40-yard field goal on their first possession to cut the lead to 7-3. But four straight rushing touchdowns by the Bulls extended their lead to 35-3 late in the third quarter.

Marks scored on a three-yard run, early in the second quarter, to make the score 14-3. Patterson punched it in from four yards out, late in the second quarter, to extend the UB advantage to 21-3 at the half.

Patterson's third touchdown came on a 15-yard run with six minutes to go in the third quarter to put the Bulls ahead, 28-3. On the Bulls next possession, quarterback Kyle Vantrease called his own number and scored on a six-yard run to up the advantage to 35-3.

Patterson but an explanation point on the win and broke the single-game school rushing record with a 57-yard run with just over two minutes left in the game.

The Bulls didn't need to pass the ball much as Vantrease finished 7-of-12 for 74 yards. Once again Antonio Nunn was his favorite target as the senior wide out finished with six catches for 70 yards.

Defensively the Bulls were led by James Patterson who finished with a career-high 13 tackles and added a pass breakup. Cory Gross also had a career high in tackles with 10. Malcolm Koonce had two of the Bulls' four sacks in the game. Marcus Fuqua recorded his first career interception in the third quarter.

"It's always good to get a road win," head coach Lance Leipold said. "I was really pleased with our offensive performance, especially running the football. Jaret and Kevin played well as did the guys up front. It's good to be 3-0. But, our guys have a standard that they expect to play at and I don't they reached that tonight. But when you can win when you didn't play your best, that's a good sign."

Patterson's 301 rushing yards tied for 12th in Mid-American Conference history for a single game. He also moved into second place in school history in career rushing, passing James Starks with 3,323 yards.

BUFFALO 70, KENT STATE 41

NOV. 28, 2020 • UB Stadium • Buffalo, NY

BUFFALO, NY – Jaret Patterson rushed for a record 409 yards and eight touchdowns to help lead the University at Buffalo football team to a 70-41 win over Kent State at UB Stadium on Saturday afternoon. The 409 yards were a Mid-American Conference record and his eight rushing touchdowns tied an NCAA record for single game.

Patterson's game came on the heels of his 301-yard, four touchdown performance at Bowling Green in UB's last outing. Through four games, the junior running back has rushed for 920 yards and 16 touchdowns.

Patterson broke off a 62-yard run on the first play from scrimmage to set the tone. He scored the first of his eight touchdowns on a three-yard just one play later. He scored on a 31-yard run on UB's next possession and added a 42-yard TD scamper with 21 seconds left in the first quarter. He had a 49-yard TD run early in the second quarter and scored his fifth TD of the game on a 1-yard plunge with just over two minutes left in the half. Patterson rushed for 267 yards and five touchdowns in the first half alone.

Patterson added a 7-yard touchdown early in the third quarter and scored on a 58-yard dash in the fourth quarter to tie Illinois' Howard Griffith for the NCAA record set in 1990.

Aside from Patterson's heroics, the Bulls needed a full team effort to defeat the 3-0 Golden Flashes. The Bulls never trailed in the game, but Kent State's high-powered offense kept them in the contest for much of the afternoon. In fact, the Golden Flashes scored on their first possession of the second half to cut the UB lead to 35-31. However, the Bulls had an answer for every Kent State threat and the UB defense stepped up when it needed to.

After Kevin Marks scored on a 7-yard run to put the Bulls ahead, 49-31, Cory Gross Jr. picked off Dustin Crum to give the ball right back to the Bulls. Patterson scored six plays later to extend the UB advantage to 56-31 early in the fourth quarter and deflate the Flashes.

Buffalo rushed for a program-record 515 yards in the game. Marks added 97 yards and two rushing touchdowns. The 10 total rushing touchdowns were also a school record.

Quarterback Kyle Vantrease was efficient, throwing for 148 yards. Jovany Ruiz had a career-high four catches for 49 yards. Dominic Johnson added three grabs.

Defensively, James Patterson had a game-high 13 tackles. Tyrone Hill added 10 tackles and two pass breakups. Malcolm Koonce recorded his fourth sack of the season.

The 70 points were the most scored by a UB team in its FBS era (since 1999), topping its previous best of 68 points scored in a seven-overtime game against Western Michigan in 2017.

BUFFALO 56, AKRON 7

DEC. 12, 2020 • UB Stadium • Buffalo, NY

BUFFALO, NY – Playing in their first game as a nationally-ranked program, the University at Buffalo football team cruised past Akron, 56-7, on a rainy afternoon at UB Stadium. The Bulls finished the regular season a perfect 5-0 and will next play Ball State in the Rocket Mortgage Mid-American Conference game on Friday night at Detroit's Ford Field.

The Bulls used a steady dose of their dominant run game to set the tone. Kevin Marks, Jr. and Jaret Patterson both rushed for over 100 yards and two touchdowns in the first half alone. Marks finished with a career-high 182 yards on only 15 carries and scored on touchdown runs of 24 and 23 yards.

Patterson rushed for 105 yards on 16 carries, all in the first half. With the game well in hand, his play was limited. The junior running back did go over 1,000 yards on the season, tying the FBS record for earliest game to eclipsed 1,000 yards, doing so in five games. He also scored his 50th and 51st career rushing touchdown, becoming just the seventh player in MAC history to scored 50 rushing touchdowns.

Patterson scored the game's first touchdown on a 1-yard run on the Bulls' first possession. Akron took the ensuing possession into field goal range and lined up for a 35-yard attempt. However, Tyrone Hill broke through the line, blocked the kick, scooped it up and returned it 63 yards for a touchdown. It marked the first time in UB's FBS era (since 1999) a player returned a blocked kick for a touchdown.

Hill's play seemed to open the floodgates. The Bulls scored touchdowns on five of their next seven possessions and led 35-0 at the half.

On UB's first possession of the second half, Kyle Vantrease connected with Trevor Wilson on a 52-yard touchdown strike to extend the lead to 42-0. Quarterback Matt Myers, who spelled Vantrease, scored on a 4-yard touchdown run, late in the third quarter, to extend the lead to 49-0.

UB's big lead afforded head coach Lance Leipold the opportunity to play some of his reserves. Walk-on Tajay Ahmed made the most of his opportunity by ripping off a 44-yard touchdown run on his first career carry. Fellow walk-on cornerback Shemar Hayes sealed the win with his first career interception.

The Bulls rolled up 507 yards of total offense, including 428 on the ground. It was the third straight game Buffalo rushed for over 300 yards.

Defensively, the Bulls held Akron to 204 yards of total offense. UB got contributions up and down the roster. The Bulls tied their season high with four sacks in the game, coming from four different players (George Wolo, Eddie Wilson, Max Michel and Kyler Laing).

BALL STATE 38, BUFFALO 28

DEC. 18, 2020 • Ford Field • Detroit, MI

DETROIT, MI – The University at Buffalo football team couldn't overcome missed opportunities and fell to Ball State, 38-28, in the Rocket Mortgage Mid-American Conference Championship held at Ford Field on Friday night. It was the Bulls first loss of the season.

Things started well for the Bulls as they marched right down the field on their opening possession and scored on a 3-yard touchdown run by Jaret Patterson to take a 7-0 lead. The key play on the drive was a 54-yard pass play from Kyle Vantrease to Antonio Nunn. It would be the beginning of a big night for the senior wide receiver.

After Ball State scored a touchdown on its opening possession, The Bulls marched right back down the field and took a 14-7 lead on a 24-yard pass from Vantrease to Trevor Wilson. After Ball State tied the game at 14-14 midway through the second quarter, Vantrease connected with Wilson again, this time on a 57-yard pass, to set up the Bulls at the Ball State 1-yard line. Vantrease called his own number on the next play to put UB back in front, 21-14, with 7:31 left in the half.

However, the rest of the second quarter was all Ball State. After tying the game at 21-21, the Cardinals got the ball back and on third-and-long connected on a 56-yard touchdown pass to take a 28-21 lead with 1:30 left in the half.

What happened on the Bulls' ensuing possession really changed the complexion of the game. A strip sack of Vantrease was scooped up by Ball State and returned 34 yards for a touchdown. It was the first sack allowed by Buffalo in nine games dated back to last season.

Suddenly, Ball State led 35-21 at the half.

The UB defense stood tall in the second half, allowing only three points. However, the Bulls just couldn't capitalize on opportunities. With 1:16 left in the third quarter Kevin Marks, Jr. ripped off a 67-yard run to cut the lead to 38-28, but the Bulls would get no closer. UB crossed midfield a couple times in the fourth quarter, but just couldn't score again.

Ball State did an excellent job neutralizing Jaret Patterson, the nation's leading rusher. They held the junior running back to just 47 yards on 18 carries. Marks finished with 93 yards on just nine carries.

The Bulls had their finest passing performance of the season. Vantrease threw for a career-high 365 yards and a touchdown. Nunn was his favorite target, finishing with career-highs of 13 catches and 182 receiving yards. His 13 grabs tied James Starks (2008) and Chaz Ahmed (1990) for the single-game school record.

Wilson was the second UB receiver to go over the century mark with 118 yards on six catches, both career highs. Lefebvre also had a career-best five catches in the game.

Defensively, the Bulls were led by James Patterson who had 11 tackles and an interception in the game. Cory Gross, Jr. and Tyrone Hill each added nine tackles. Detroit native Tyrece Woods, Jr. had the best game of his career, finishing with six tackles, three tackles for loss and two sacks. Malcolm Koonce and George Wolo also added sacks

BUFFALO 17, MARSHALL 10

DEC. 25, 2020 • Cramton Bowl • Montgomery, AL

MONTGOMERY, AL – Kevin Marks, Jr. scored on a 2-yard touchdown run with just over one minute to play and the defense withstood a late rally to lift the University at Buffalo football team to a 17-10 win over Marshall in the 2020 Camellia Bowl on Friday afternoon in Montgomery, AL. It was the second straight year the Bulls were victorious in a bowl game.

While the offense got the headlines all season, it was the UB defense that had its finest performance of the year to hold off the Thundering Herd. The Bulls held Marshall to 248 yards of total offense.

Marks was named the game's MVP after rushing for 138 yards and a touchdown in the game. The junior running back was effective early rushing for 117 yards in the first half. This against a Marshall squad that was ranked second in the nation in rushing defense.

The Bulls opened the scoring on a 1-yard touchdown run by Vantrease early in the second quarter. Alex McNulty added a 25-yard field goal with 5:33 left in the half to extend the UB lead to 10-0.

Marshall got a spark late in second quarter by scoring a touchdown with just 42 seconds on the clock to cut the UB lead to 10-7 at the half. The Thundering Herd came out and kicked a short field goal on their first possession of the second half and suddenly the game was tied, 10-10.

The score would remain tied until late in the contest. After Eric Black came up with a sack on third down, the Thundering Herd punted the ball back to the Bulls. UB started its game-winning drive at its own 12-yard line with 7:27 left on the clock.

The Bulls methodically marched down the field behind the arm of quarterback Kyle Vantrease. The junior signal-caller first connected with Jovany Ruiz to pick up a 3rd-and-7 at the UB 44. The key play on the drive was a 26-yard completion to Antonio Nunn, setting up the Bulls at the Marshall 18. After two short runs, the Bulls were faced with another third down. Vantrease threaded the needle to Nunn for a 12-yard completion and UB had the ball at the Marshall 1-yard line. Two plays later, Marks waltzed into the endzone for the game winning score.

On Marshall's ensuing possession, it drove all the way down to the UB 20. However, Kadofi Wright broke through the line for a sack. Two plays later, on fourth down, Black thwarted the comeback attempt with his second sack of the game.

James Patterson had a team-high nine tackles in the game and Cory Gross, Jr. finished with eight. Max Michel had the best game of his career, finishing with six tackles, a sack, 1.5 tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

Vantrease finished 16-of-27 for 140 yards. Ruiz, who was just awarded a scholarship the night before, was his favorite target. The Fredonia native finished with seven catches for 61 yards, both career highs. Nunn had four catches for 49 yards.

The Bulls finished the season 6-1 and bowl champions for the second straight season. It was the second bowl win in program history.

HISTORY OF UB FOOTBALL

The year was 1894. Fourteen University at Buffalo medical students got together, bought uniforms and practiced after classes, splitting time at Brown's Riding Academy on East North Street and John's Riding Academy on East Utica. After honing their skills carefully, avoiding remnants of horses that grazed their practice pastures, they put on their blue jerseys, tight pants, and leather boots and stepped onto a baseball field on East Ferry Street to face Hobart College. As they kicked off to the visitors, no one among those first UB football players could have foreseen the journey they were embarking upon. They were not merely kicking a football, they were kicking off UB's quest for intercollegiate competition.

UB's football program began modestly when the University, then a private institution consisting of schools of dentistry, law, medicine and pharmacy, formed an athletic association. The athletic association in turn started the first football program. That first team was led by captain A. B. Stein who was joined by founding members J.B. Crofts, Irving Johnson, William Potter, Gray McCuthcheon, St. John Green and "Dinky" Johnson. During the first three years of its existence, the football team played squads from the University of Rochester and Hobart College and experienced little success, compiling a record of 0-2-4. Most importantly however, the team gained recognition from UB during this period when the University granted the team usage of an on-campus field for its home games.

UB football savored its first taste of success in 1897 when the team compiled a 7-0 record under manager E.J. Meyer and coach C.W. Dibble. Crowds began to flock to UB's home games, and in response the university moved many of the team's more popular contests to Civic Stadium in 1900.

The UB football bandwagon really gained momentum when the team played in an exhibition match at the 1901 Pan-American Exposition. UB played in front of a Chinese representative who "...did not understand much about the game, was delighted to see the sport." This high point was short-lived however, as UB was dealt a crushing 128-0 defeat by national powerhouse University of Michigan in what remains the worst defeat ever suffered by a UB squad. That loss seemingly was symbolic of the hard times to come as poor support and organization for the following two seasons forced UB's athletic association to cease football operations after the 1903 season.

Frank M. Pleasant awoke the hibernating UB football program in 1915 when he revitalized the program as the team's first full-time, professional head coach. UB adopted the Bison as its mascot that year and proceeded to a 3-3 record.

Art Powell took over the reins of the program in 1916, helping UB to improve with each season. UB football hit a peak in 1918 when the squad compiled a 3-1 record. The Bisons also enjoyed their most lopsided victory to date during the '18 campaign, an 81-0 defeat of Hobart.

The 1923 season brought many changes to UB's football program. James Batterson took over as head coach and the Bisons played their first game at Rotary Field, dedicated by the Rotary Club of Buffalo. Dr. James Ailinger, a standout basketball player for UB and a member of the 1922 football team, recalled UB's humble facilities on opening day at Rotary Field.

"The first season we played here we had to dress up in Hayes Hall and run to the field," said Ailinger. "In between there was a farm, so we had to run through potato and vegetable fields to reach the stadium. Only the end zone was marked. There were stones everywhere and the end zone on the side near the present medical school was six feet higher than the other side. Winning the toss was important because we could choose to play uphill or downhill."

UB struggled the first season in its new home, compiling a 1-5 record.

The six seasons that followed under head coaches James Bond (1923) and Russell Carrick (1924-28) were rather bleak as well. The Bisons did not have a winningseason over that period, tallying a record of 7-36-3. By 1929 it was quite evident that UB's football program desperately needed resuscitation once again. The man to jump start UB was head coach Jay "Biffy" Lee, former roommate at Notre Dame of legendary coach Knute Rockne. Some of Rockne's majestical motivation must have rubbed off as Lee led UB to a 5-2 record in what would be the Bisons only winning campaign in 16 seasons. Lee upgraded UB's schedule during the following two seasons and the Bisons' record suffered once again as they fell to squads from Fordham, Carnegie Tech, Dartmouth and the Notre Dame B team.

In 1931, the team changed its mascot to the Bull in order to distinguish UB from the professional teams in the Queen City.

Jim Peelle was hired as the 12th head coach in Bulls' history in 1936 with the burden of ending six consecutive losing campaigns. Peelle rejuvenated the program by notching five victories against three losses in his inaugural season. That success was short-lived however, as UB failed to post another winning season until 1942 when Peelle's squad went 6-2 once again with impressive victories over Hobart, St. Lawrence and Johns Hopkins.

UB heeded the call of its nation after the 1942 season by suspending all intercollegiate athletics due to the country's involvement in World War II. The Bulls returned to the field in 1946 and staged their second consecutive winning season for the first time since 1899. Civic Stadium became the home site for all UB home games in 1946, a relationship which lasted until 1954.

Frank Clair was hand-picked by Peelle to be his replacement in 1948. Clair extended UB's consecutive winning seasons mark to five during his two-year stint. The highlight of Clair's tenure was a 48-13 victory over the heavily-favored Louisville Cardinals.

The Canadian Football League lured Clair away in 1950 and UB

Athletic Director Jim Peelle brought back a familiar face to lead the Bulls, former head coach James Wilson. Despite severe cutbacks in the football program's budget and mediocre seasons, the Bulls drew 26,126 fans to Civic Stadium, setting a single-game attendance record, in a 47-13 loss to Colgate.

In 1955, Clifford C. Furnas was named Chancellor of the University and instituted a five-year plan aimed at upgrading UB's athletic programs. Richard "Dick" Offenhamer was tabbed to lead the Bulls back to respectability and did so by posting a 4-4-1 record in his initial season. Fran Woidzik, a standout on the 1955 squad, went on to become the first Bull to be taken in the National Football League draft. Offenhamer's first season was a prelude of good things to come for the Bulls, as he would end his career with UB's best career winning percentage.

The year 1958 will forever be remembered as one of the greatest seasons in UB football history. On the strength of an 8-1 record that included victories over Harvard and Columbia, UB claimed the prestigious Lambert Cup, emblematic of Eastern small college supremacy. Team captains Nick Bottini and Lou Reale accepted the award on the Ed Sullivan Show on December 14 of that year before a national audience. The Bulls also earned an invitation to the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Florida but declined the offer to protest the discriminatory policies of the bowl's stadium, which refused to allow black athletes to compete on its field.

After posting an 8-1 record and finishing second in the Lambert Cup competition to Delaware in 1959, UB moved up to University Division status in 1960.

UB football made great strides in the early 1960s with stars like quarterback John "Long John" Stofa and defensive tackle Gerry Philbin. Stofa rewrote UB's passing records during his career while Philbin was named to the All-East team and played in the North-South and Coaches All-American post-season games. Both Stofa and Philbin would go on to play in the NFL following their UB careers.

UB reached another pinnacle in 1962, being recognized as "major" by the NCAA. UB also received attention in 1964 when its contest at Boston University was televised to a national audience.

Doc Urich handled UB's coaching duties for the 1966-68 seasons after Offenhamer stepped down. Urich guided UB to its finest season at the "major" level with a 7-3 record, losing only to Iowa State, Boston College and Villanova.

Bob Deming took over as head coach for the 1969 and '70 seasons and led the Bulls to wins over Boston College and Villanova in 1969. In 1970, ABC-TV regionally televised a 16-0 UB victory over Holy Cross at Rotary Field in the only game in UB history to be broadcast from Buffalo by a major network.

The black day in UB football history came in January of 1971 when due to expenses and the political climate on campus, football was dropped as a varsity sport.

In the fall of 1977, with the support of students, alumni and administration, UB restarted its football program with head coach Bill Dando at the reins. UB played four games in that first season, playing RIT to a 7-7 tie in its very first game back, the last tie in UB school history.

The Bulls built back to respectability quickly and did not have a losing season from 1980-1984, posting a 30-21 record.

In 1985, UB moved to the greener pastures of the Amherst Campus and the 4,000-seat UB Stadium. The Bulls defeated Villanova, 29-27, in Philadelphia in 1986 and once again talk of a possible upgrade of UB's program was alive.

New University President Steven Sample appealed to the Intercollegiate Athletics Board (IAB) in 1985 to upgrade UB to Division I-AA status. The IAB granted that request and after approval by the SUNY system in February of 1986, the "Run to Division I" had begun.

Former UB great Sam Sanders was hired in 1990 to replace Bill Dando and lead the Bulls from Division III and into the spotlight of Division I. After two rebuilding years under Sanders, the program took a hard hit when the head coach was forced to step down for medical reasons. Jim Ward, UB's offensive coordinator under Sanders, became the 20th head coach of the University at Buffalo's football program in 1992.

Under the direction of Athletic Director Nelson E. Townsend with the strong support of University President William R. Greiner, UB completed its "Run to Division I" on September 4, 1993, playing its first game at the Division I level in more than 20 years against the University of Maine. UB unveiled its $22 million, 16,500-seat UB Stadium on the Amherst Campus, site of the 1993 World University Games. In front of 14,179 fans, the Bulls put on quite a show, taking the lead with 51 seconds remaining in the contest. Maine spoiled UB's return, however, scoring a last-second touchdown to earn a 31-27 win.

In January of 1995, the Bulls came full circle when they hired UB alum Craig Cirbus ('80), who had spent the previous 11 years as an assistant under legendary coach Joe Paterno at Penn State.

A few months later, the Bulls wowed Western New York when they announced that they would be heading to Division I-A and the Mid-American Conference in 1999.

The 1996 season will go down as one of the finest in school history. The Bulls finished 8-3 on the season, earning the first Top 25 ranking in school history and earning Cirbus I-AA Independent National Coach of theYear honors. In addition, three Bulls (Ed Ellis, Craig Guest and Gerald Carlson) signed NFL contracts with Ellis being picked in the 4th round by the New England Patriots.

In 1999, UB rejoined the ranks of major college football with its entrance into the Mid-American Conference. The Bulls were back in the big-time for the first time in nearly 30 years.

The Bulls earned their first Division I-A victory in 30 years on September 23, 2000 when they nipped Bowling Green, 20-17, at UB Stadium. Buffalo would go on to defeat Kent State and finish 2-4 in the MAC East in 2000.

On November 30, 2000 Athletic Director Bob Arkeilpane announced the hiring of Jim Hofher as the 22nd head football coach in UB history. Hofher brought with him to Buffalo 22 years of Division I coaching experience, including stints as an assistant at Tennessee, Syracuse and North Carolina and eight years as head coach at Cornell University.

On December 16, 2005 Athletic Director Warde Manuel announced that Turner Gill, who was part of three national championships as a coach at the University of Nebraska and a Heisman Trophy finalist as a player, agreed to a five-year contract to become the 23rd head football coach at the University at Buffalo. In his first season with the Bulls, UB scored 220 points, the most by a Buffalo team since moving to I-A.

Buffalo had its most successful season since returning to the Division I-A ranks in 2007. The Bulls finished the year 5-7 overall and 5-3 in the Mid-American Conference for a share of the East Division regular season title. Turner Gill was named MAC Coach of the Year and a UB record eight players were named to the All-Conference Team. Junior quarterback Drew Willy completed a school-record 258 passes and had the highest pass efficiency rating in school history and sophomore running back James Starks became the Bulls' first 1,000-yard rusher in the I-A era with 1,103 yards.

On December 5, 2008 the Bulls defeated 12th-ranked and undefeated Ball State to win the MAC Championship for the first time in school history.

The Bulls had an 8-6 record in 2008. The eight wins were the most in the Bulls' Division I-A era and one shy of the school record for wins in a season.

The 2008 season featured one of the most explosive offenses in school history. Gill, who handled the play calling, commanded an offense that scored a school-record 424 points. Quarterback Drew Willy threw for a school-record 3,304 yards and 25 touchdowns, running back James Starks ran for a school-record 1,333 yards and 16 touchdowns and wideout Naaman Roosevelt established school records of 104 receptions, 1,402 yards and 13 touchdowns.

The Bulls played in their first ever bowl game when they faced off against Connecticut in the 2009 International Bowl.

The Bulls finished 2009 season 5-7 and featured an offense that averaged 405 yards per game - the highest average in UB's Division I-A era. Numerous Bulls wrapped up record-breaking careers. Although he missed the entire season with a shoulder injury, Starks finished his career as the school record holder for rushing (3,140 yards) and rushing touchdowns (34). He was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the sixth round of the NFL Draft. Naaman Roosevelt set the school record for receptions (268) and receiving yards (3,551) and signed with the Buffalo Bills.

Jeff Quinn was hired as Buffalo's 24th head coach on December 22, 2010. Quinn has produced record-breaking offenses throughout his 27-year college coaching tenure and has won conference and national championships at his last three stops, including five conference crowns in the past eight seasons. He most recently spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator at Cincinnati.

In 2010, Davonte Shannon broke the school record for career tackles with 461 enroute to being named to the All-MAC First Team for the fourth straight year. He became just the fourth player in the history of the Mid-American Conference to earn that distinction. Cornerback Josh Thomas was selected in the fifth round (143rd pick) of the NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

in 2011, Branden Oliver rushed for a school-record 1,395 yards and added 13 touchdowns en route to earning first-team All-MAC honors. Chazz Anderson transfered from Cincinnati to play his final season at Buffalo. The UB signal caller threw for 2,454 yards and 11 touchdowns on the year. He set a single-game school record with 35 completions against Northern Illinois (10/22). Khalil Mack ranked third in the nation in tackles for loss with 20.5.

The Bulls had a strong finish to the 2012 campaign by winning three of the final four games. Using a plethora of running backs, the Bulls rushed for 2,120 yards - the third highest total in school history. Khalil Mack was named All-MAC First Team for the second straight year in a season in which he set the school record for career tackles for loss (56) and forced fumbles (11).

UB had one of its finest seasons as a Division I-A program in 2013. The Bulls went 8-5, including a 6-2 record in the MAC. It was their most MAC wins since joining the conference in 1999. UB advanced to the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl for just its second ever bowl appearance in school history.

Branden Oliver finished his career as the Bulls all-time leading rusher with 4,409 yards. Alex Neutz broke the school record for career touchdown receptions with 31. And then there was Khalil Mack. The All-American linebacker broke the NCAA record for career forced fumbles with 16 and tied the NCAA mark for career takles for loss with 75. He went on to become the Bulls' highest drafted player in school history as he was picked fifth overall by the Oakland Raiders in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Anthone Taylor rushed for 1,403 yards in 2014 - the second-highest single-season effort in school history. Lance Leipold was named the 25th UB football head coach on Dec. 1, 2014. Kristjan Sokoli was selected in the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks.

The Bulls went 5-7 under first-year head coach Lance Leipold. Quarterback Joe Licata capped off his stellar career by setting nine different school passing records, including career passing yards (9,485) and career touchdown passes (76).

In 2016, Jordan Johnson rushed for over 1,000 yards on the season, including a school-record 282 yards in a game vs. Akron. Linebacker Khalil Hodge finished the season with 123 tackles , just two shy of the FBS-era record for a single season.

The Bulls won the final three games of the 2017 season to finish 6-6 and earn bowl eligibility for just the third time in school history. In his first season at UB, junior wide receiver Anthony Johnson burst onto the scene with 76 catches for 1,356 yards and a school-record 14 touchdowns. Linebacker Khalil Hodge set an FBS-era record with 154 tackles on the year.

2018 was arguably the best season in the FBS era. The Bulls won a school-record 10 games, including a 7-1 mark in conference play - their best since joining the MAC in 1999. Buffalo played in the MAC Championship game for the second time in school history, dropping a 30-29 heartbreaker to Northern Illinois. UB played in its third bowl game in program history, falling to Troy, 42-32, in the Dollar General Bowl. Quarterback Tyree Jackson was named the MAC Offensive Player of the Year - the first time a UB player won the award.

Even with the departure of key personnel, the 2019 season proved to be a special one for the Bulls. UB finished with a record of 8-5 and finished the campaign by winning six if its last seven games, including a 31-9 victory over Charlotte in the Bahamas Bowl for the school's first bowl game victory. Sophomore running back Jaret Patterson set single-season school records with 1,799 yards rushing and 19 rushing touchdowns and paced a rushing attack that set a school record with 3,256 yards. A program-record 12 players were named to the All-MAC team.

The 2020 campaign was shortened due to the COVID-19 pandemic. However, once the season started in early November, the Bulls quickly established themselves as one of the best teams in the MAC. UB blazed through the regular season a perfect 5-0 and even made an appearance in the Top 25 for the first time in program history. The Bulls lost to Ball State in the MAC Championship game, but rebounded to win their second bowl game in as many years, defeating Marshall, 17-10, in the Camellia Bowl. Jaret Patterson was the story of the 2020 season. The junior running back rushed for 1,072 yards and 19 touchdowns in only six games. He led the nation in rushing average (178.7 ypg) and eclipsed 1,000 yards in his fifth game, tying the FBS record for earliest game to reach 1,000 yards. He was the MVP of the MAC and earned All-America honors.

2013 - UB went 8-5 and played San Diego State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl for just its second ever bowl game. Running back Branden Oliver broke both the single season (1,535) and career (4,049) rushing records. Record seven Bulls were named All-MAC, including five to the First Team. Linebacker Khalil Mack earned All-American honors and was selected fifth overall by the Oakland Raiders in the NFL, becoming UB's highest ever NFL draft pick.

2014 - In a season in which the Bulls went 5-6, Anthone Taylor rushed for 1,403 yards - the second best single-season effort in school history. Joe Licata broke the single season (29) and career (60) passing touchdown school record. Kristjan Sokoli was selected in the 5th round of the NFL Draft by the Seahawks. Following the season, Athletic Director Danny White named Lance Leipold the 25th head coach in program history.

The signature play of the 2008 MAC Championship Game was a fumble returned 93 yards for a touchdown by game MVP Mike Newton to help lead the Bulls to an upset win over #14 Ball State.

In 2018, Tyree Jackson became the first UB player to be named MAC Offensive Player of the Year.

2015 - Under first year head coach Lance Leipold, the Bulls finished 5-7. It was the most wins by a first-year head coach since Bob Deming won six games in 1969. Joe Licata finished his career holding numerous passing records, including career passing yards (9,485) and passing touchdowns (76). Matt Weiser was named an Academic All-American after shattering the single-season school record for receptions (63) and receiving yards (625) by a tight end.

2016 - Jordan Johnson rushed for a school-record 282 yards in a win over Akron. Mason Schreck had 651 receiving yards - the most ever by a tight end in school history. Schreck was selected in the 7th round of the NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals.

2017 - UB went 6-6 and earned bowl eligibility for just the third time in school history. Anthony Johnson ranked second in the nation in receiving, averaging 113 yards per game and scored a school-record 14 touchdowns. Linebacker Khalil Hodge ranked second in the nation in tackles with 154 - a school record in the Bulls' FBS era.

2018 - The Bulls won a school-record 10 games, finishing with a 10-4 record. They won the MAC East Division and earned a spot in the MAC title game for the second time in school history - losing to Northern Illinois, 30-29. UB played Troy in the Dollar General Bowl, the team's third bowl appearance in program history. Quarterback Tyree Jackson was named MAC Offensive Player of the Year and running back Jaret Patterson was named MAC Freshman of the Year.

2019 - The Bulls made history by winning their first ever bowl game, defeating Charlotte, 31-9, in the Bahamas Bowl. Jaret Patterson set a school-record by rushing for 1,799 yards on the season. UB ranked second in the nation in sacks allowed (8) and fourth in the country in rushing defense (94.2). A school-record 12 Bulls were named to the All-MAC team.

2020 - In a COVID-19-shortened season, the Bulls went 5-0 to win the MAC East Division and earn a spot in the MAC Championship Game. Despite losing to Ball State in the title game, UB rebounded to defeat Marshall in the Camellia Bowl for their second straight bowl win. The Bulls were ranked nationally for the first time in program history, reaching as high as 23rd in the AP poll. Jaret Patterson rushed for 409 yards (second in NCAA history) and eight touchdowns (tied NCAA record) against Kent State. Defensive End Malcolm Koonce was drafted in the third round (79th) by the Las Vegas Raiders. On May 8, 2021 Athletic Director Mark Alnutt introduced Maurice "Mo" Linguist as the 26th head coach in program history.

TORONTO, ONTARIO - The University at Buffalo's magical 2008 season was derailed by a powerful Connecticut team that was able to dominate both lines of scrimmage en route to a 38-20 win over the Bulls at the third annual International Bowl at Rogers Centre. The game was played in front of an International Bowl record 40,184 fans, of which roughly 30,000 were wearing the Royal Blue and White of the Bulls.

The Bulls late-season magic seemed to be ready to carry into 2009 when Buffalo used five UConn turnovers to race to a 20-10 first-half lead. However, the Huskies (8-5) scored the last 28 points of the game behind 261 yards by the nation's leading rusher, Donald Brown, to subdue the Bulls.

Buffalo (8-6) still had an opportunity to win in the game's final minutes, but a pass by senior quarterback Drew Willy was broken up in the end zone and returned 100 yards for a score by Dahan Deleston with 2:15 remaining. The loss did not dampen head coach Turner Gill's feelings about his team.

After falling behind to the Huskies, 10-3, early in the second quarter, the Bulls' late-season propensity for forcing turnovers showed itself again in a huge way, leading to Buffalo scoring on three straight possessions.

The Bulls first big break came when freshman punter Peter Fardon boomed a 54-yard punt that was mishandled by Jasper Howard into his own end zone where Buffalo freshman Ray Anthony Long fell on it for his first career touchdown. That tied the score 10-10 with 11:36 left in the half.

The very next possession, UConn quarterback Tyler Lorenzen was sacked by UB's Anel Montanez and Andrae Smith, with the ball coming loss and being recovered by defensive end Jerry Housey at the UConn 18-yard line.

The Bulls, however, had to settle for a 29-yard field goal by sophomore A.J. Principe that gave Buffalo its second lead at 13-10 with 8:22 left before half.

The magic continued on the ensuing kickoff, when UConn's Robbie Frey fumbled the kickoff into his endzone, was crunched by linebacker Justin Winters at the six-yard line and coughed up the ball, recovered by UB's John Syty at the Huskies four-yard line.

One play later, junior tailback James Starks ran over a Huskie defender at the one-yard line to put Buffalo up 20-10 – after the PAT – with 7:55 left in the second quarter.

In that incredible sequence, UB scored 17 points in 3:41 of game time while running four offensive plays.

The game's momentum, however, began to swing back to the Connecticut side late in the first half. That's when Brown, on a first-and-10 from the UConn 12-yard line, busted a 75-yard run to the UB 13-yard line. Lorenzen scored on the game's next play and cut the Buffalo lead to 20-17 at intermission.

For the remainder of the game, UConn's stout defense and outstanding offensive line would dominate, allowing the Huskies to rush for 358 yards in the game. The Bulls, meanwhile, would suffer through their worst offensive performance of the year. UConn held Starks to just 46 yards on 24 touches (13 carries, 11 receptions), while Willy finished 29-of-43 for 213 yards, but was held without a touchdown pass for just the second game this season.

Flanker Naaman Roosevelt capped an incredible campaign with eight receptions for 90 yards, becoming the first UB receiver to ever record 100 catches in a season – finishing just one away from the all-time MAC record with 104 catches for 1,402 yards – both easily UB school records.

The Bulls defense, which played valiantly by forcing four fumbles – was paced by sophomore Davonte Shannon who had 15 tackles – one for loss – including 10 solo stops and added his first career blocked kick. Winters added eight tackles and a forced fumble, while Montanez had three tackles, a half-sack, a two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery.

BOISE, ID – Playing in just its second bowl game in school history, the University at Buffalo football team lost to San Diego State, 49-24, in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl at Bronco Stadium on Saturday night. The Bulls end their season with an 8-5 record.

Buffalo, a team which prided itself on taking care of the football all season, turned the ball over three times in the game. The Aztecs capitalized by scoring 21 points off those turnovers.

San Diego State jumped out to a 14-0 lead early in the second quarter before the UB offense awoke. The Bulls drove 75 yards and cut the lead in half when Joe Licata connected with Branden Oliver on a 10-yard screen pass to make the score 14-7 with 7:51 left in the half. For a player who has had 33 rushing touchdowns over his career, it was surprisingly his first career receiving touchdown.

After the Bulls defense forced a San Diego State three-and-out on its ensuing possession, they were back in business. UB drove to the Aztec 27-yard line and a Patrick Clarke 38-yard field goal cut the lead to 14-10 with 4:01 left in the half.

However, the Aztecs scored on their next possession and then with just over a minute to play in the half came up with an interception off a tipped pass. Just one play later, they punched it into the endzone to take a 28-10 lead with 38 seconds left in the half. The way the end of the half transpired seemed to take the wind out of UB's sails.

Things didn't get better for the Bulls as they fumbled the opening kickoff of the second half and San Diego State quickly struck for another touchdown to take a 35-10 lead. The Aztecs extended their lead to 42-10 before the UB offense got on the board again. Licata connected with Alex Neutz on a 23-yard touchdown strike to cut the lead to 42-17 with 14:53 left in the game. Neutz finished his career with a school-record 31 touchdown receptions.

San Diego State running back Adam Muema was dominant in the game and his third touchdown of the day put San Diego State ahead, 49-17. Muema was the MVP of the game after rushing for 229 yards and three scores.

The Bulls scored their final touchdown of the game when Licata found Fred Lee from 10 yards out with just 36 seconds left to make the final score, 49-24.

After a slow start, Licata finished the game by throwing for 196 yards and three touchdowns. He finished the season with 23 touchdown passes, one shy of the school record of 24 set by Drew Willy in 2008.

Oliver was named the Player of the Game for Buffalo after rushing for 114 yards. It was his 20th career 100-yard game – seven more than any other player in school history. He finished his outstanding career rushing for a school-record 4,049 yards. He is just the 13th player in Mid-American Conference history to rush for over 4,000 yards.

Defensively, the Bulls were led by Adam Redden who had nine tackles, a sack and a forced fumble.

San Diego State ran most its plays away from All-American linebacker Khalil Mack as he was limited to six tackles. He did add a pass breakup and a fumble recovery. The loss brings an end to the storied career of Mack, arguably the greatest linebacker, if not player, in school history. He holds the NCAA record for career forced fumbles with 16 and tied the NCAA record for career tackles for loss with 75.

MOBILE, AL – The University at Buffalo football team uncharacteristically turned the ball over four times and it proved to be the difference in a 42-32 loss to Troy in the Dollar General Bowl held at Ladd-Peebles Stadium on Saturday night. The Trojans were able to score 14 points off turnovers and had possession of the ball for much of the second half.

It started out well for the Bulls as, like they had done many times this season, went right down and scored on their first possession of the game. After Antonio Nunn hauled in a deflected pass for a 51-yard gain, Jaret Patterson scored on an 11-yard touchdown run to give Buffalo a quick 7-0 lead.

Troy needed just three plays to tie the game, as Trojan quarterback Sawyer Smith hit a streaking Tray Eafford in stride for a 60-yard touchdown.

The Bulls mounted a 14-play, 96-yard drive, early in the second quarter, and Kevin Marks capped the drive with a 1-yard touchdown dive to give the Bulls a 14-7 lead with 11:06 left in the half.

After the Trojans tied the game at 14-14 with 6:15 left in the second quarter, the Bulls mounted a 10-play, 41-yard drive and Adam Mitcheson drilled a 41-yard field goal with 52 seconds left to give UB a 17-14 lead at the half.

The Trojans took the opening kick of the second half and kept their offense on the field for the entire third quarter. After mounting a 75-yard scoring touchdown drive on their first possession to take a 21-17 lead, Troy surprised the Bulls with an onside kick and got the ball right back. However, with the ball inside the UB 5-yard line and it looking like Troy was going to score again, James Patterson came up with a big hit to jar the ball loose from the Trojans quarterback. Safety Tyrone Hill scooped it up and dashed 93-yards for a touchdown to put the Bulls back up, 24-21.

However, a gassed UB defense remained on the field and Troy capitalized. The Trojans needed 12 plays to drive 69 yards and scored on a 2-yard touchdown pass to regain a 28-24 lead early in the fourth quarter. Following a 3-and-out by the Bulls, Troy struck again, connected on a 45-yard touchdown pass to build its lead to 35-24 with 11:25 left in the game.

The Bulls didn't give up. K.J. Osborn made a spectacular one-handed touchdown grab to cut the deficit to 35-30. On the ensuing 2-point conversion try, Tyree Jackson scrambled, eluded rushers and found Nunn in the endzone for the conversion. The Bulls trailed 35-32 with 7:24 left in the game.

Following a Wesley Scott third-down sack, the Bulls got the ball back on their own 21-yard line with 3:28 left and trailing by three. However, on the first play of the drive, Jackson was sacked and fumbled the ball. It was recovered by Troy. On the very next play, the Trojans ran it in for a touchdown to extend their lead to 42-32.

Despite the loss, a number of Bulls finished the season by hitting significant milestones. Patterson rushed for 67 yards in the game to put him over 1,000 for the season. With 1,013 yards on the year, he became the first freshman running back in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season.

Anthony Johnson had 67 yards on five catches to go over 1,000 yards on the year. He became just the third player in school history to have two 1,000-yard seasons in a career.

Jackson threw for 274 yards in the game to put him over 3,000 for the season. He joined Drew Willy (2008) as just the second quarterback in school history to throw for 3,000 yards in a single season with 3,131.

NASSAU, BAHAMAS – History was made on Saturday afternoon as the University at Buffalo football team won the first bowl game in school history by defeating Charlotte, 31-9, in the Makers Wanted Bahamas Bowl played at Thomas Robinson Stadium in Nassau, Bahamas

Sophomore running back Jaret Patterson was named the Offensive Most Valuable player after rushing for 173 yards and two touchdowns in the game.

While Patterson paced the offensive attack, it was the defense that shined in the Bahamas sun. Charlotte, one of top rushing teams in Conference USA, and 25th nationally, was limited to just 80 yards on the ground. Junior defensive end Malcolm Koonce was named the Defensive Most Valuable Player after tallying five tackles, two sacks and a forced fumble. He had two of UB's five sacks in the game.

The Bulls wasted little time getting on the board as they scored on their first possession. Kyle Vantrease connected with Antonio Nunn on a 12-yard fade pattern to give UB a 7-0 lead with 9:12 left in the first quarter.

Vantrease called his own number with a quarterback sneak, with three minutes left in the half, to give the Bulls a 14-0 lead.

Linebacker James Patterson made one of the biggest defensive plays of the game when he came up with an interception on Charlotte's first play of its ensuing possession. The Bulls were able to convert that into a 31-yard Alex McNulty field goal to take a 17-0 lead at the half.

Buffalo extended its lead to 24-0 on a 6-yard Patterson touchdown run, his first of the game, with 5:22 left in the third quarter.

Charlotte finally got on the board late in the third quarter on a 51-yard touchdown pass. Linebacker Matt Otwinowski sniffed out the 49ers' two-point conversion try to keep it a three-score game, 24-6.

After Charlotte kicked a field goal to make the score 24-9 with 10 minutes left in the game, the offense put together its most impressive drive of the game. The Bulls mounted a 16-play, 75-yard drive that took over nine minutes off the clock. Patterson put the game on ice with a 10-yard touchdown run with 1:43 left.

With a couple injuries on defense, reserve players had to step up. Junior cornerback Ali Abbas was one of those players as had a career-high nine tackles and a big pass breakup.

Seniors Joey Banks and Devon Russell finished their career on a high note with nine and seven tackles, respectively. Fellow senior Ledarius Mack's sack was the final play of the game.

MONTGOMERY, AL – Kevin Marks, Jr. scored on a 2-yard touchdown run with just over one minute to play and the defense withstood a late rally to lift the University at Buffalo football team to a 17-10 win over Marshall in the 2020 Camellia Bowl on Friday afternoon in Montgomery, AL. It was the second straight year the Bulls were victorious in a bowl game.

While the offense got the headlines all season, it was the UB defense that had its finest performance of the year to hold off the Thundering Herd. The Bulls held Marshall to 248 yards of total offense.

Marks was named the game's MVP after rushing for 138 yards and a touchdown in the game. The junior running back was effective early rushing for 117 yards in the first half. This against a Marshall squad that was ranked second in the nation in rushing defense.

The Bulls opened the scoring on a 1-yard touchdown run by Vantrease early in the second quarter. Alex McNulty added a 25-yard field goal with 5:33 left in the half to extend the UB lead to 10-0.

Marshall got a spark late in second quarter by scoring a touchdown with just 42 seconds on the clock to cut the UB lead to 10-7 at the half. The Thundering Herd came out and kicked a short field goal on their first possession of the second half and suddenly the game was tied, 10-10.

The score would remain tied until late in the contest. After Eric Black came up with a sack on third down, the Thundering Herd punted the ball back to the Bulls. UB started its game-winning drive at its own 12-yard line with 7:27 left on the clock.

The Bulls methodically marched down the field behind the arm of quarterback Kyle Vantrease. The junior signal-caller first connected with Jovany Ruiz to pick up a 3rd-and-7 at the UB 44. The key play on the drive was a 26-yard completion to Antonio Nunn, setting up the Bulls at the Marshall 18. After two short runs, the Bulls were faced with another third down. Vantrease threaded the needle to Nunn for a 12-yard completion and UB had the ball at the Marshall 1-yard line. Two plays later, Marks waltzed into the endzone for the game winning score.

On Marshall's ensuing possession, it drove all the way down to the UB 20. However, Kadofi Wright broke through the line for a sack. Two plays later, on fourth down, Black thwarted the comeback attempt with his second sack of the game.

James Patterson had a team-high nine tackles in the game and Cory Gross, Jr. finished with eight. Max Michel had the best game of his career, finishing with six tackles, a sack, 1.5 tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

Vantrease finished 16-of-27 for 140 yards. Ruiz, who was just awarded a scholarship the night before, was his favorite target. The Fredonia native finished with seven catches for 61 yards, both career highs. Nunn had four catches for 49 yards.

The Bulls finished the season 6-1 and bowl champions for the second straight season. It was the second bowl win in program history.

A DIFFERENT TIME IN A DIFFERENT WORLD

Looking back at one of the most influential football teams in University history 50 years later

By Alex Rubin and Stephen Marth

"Picture Buffalo as it is today…and then forget about all of the suburbs - they weren't there. The nightlife downtown, you had a big nightclub called the Town Casino, you had all of these theaters downtown, it was just so different than what exists today that you can't even imagine."

Stanley Kowalski, left guard for the 1958 Bulls football team, said the above reminiscing about his memories of the city of Buffalo. While this image of Buffalo remains dear to him, another issue clouds his memories – the scandal of the 1958 Tangerine Bowl.

The 1958 football season at the University at Buffalo was one of extreme highs and even more extreme lows; marked by an appearance on the Ed Sullivan show after an 8-1 season, sullied by racism and segregation.

After finishing the season as the Lambert Cup champions, Buffalo was invited to play in the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, FL. However, after accepting the invitation, University Chancellor Clifford Furnas, along with the entire team, made the decision to not play in the game; they learned that their two black players, Willie Evans and Mike Wilson, would not be allowed to play as per the request of the hosting school district.

In a statement made about his decision, Furnas said, "They are two of our finest young men, and have greatly contributed to our fine showing this season. The possibility of discrimination against any member of the team prevents our appearance at the game."

Being a member of the football team made Evans, the star running back for the team, a hot commodity around campus. The fact that he was one of very few minorities on campus made it tough for him at times.

"It was subtle. I didn't have the luxury of cutting class, because having made a little name for myself in athletics, professors knew who I was. Not to mention, I was usually the only black person in the class," Evans said.

One reason Kowalski believes there was not blatant racism within the team was that several players grew up without having relationships with minorities. Since there was no history of racism in their background, Kowalski believes it allowed the players to come in with open minds towards both Wilson and Evans.

"I grew up in a small mill town in Pennsylvania… we didn't have any blacks living there, so you didn't have prejudice built up ingrained in your head by your parents or your uncles," Kowalski said.

In the first game of the season, the Bulls were to face Harvard, one of the most respected teams in the nation at the time. Evans remembers this win being the first sign that the team could do something special.

"If you went back the year before, we were 5-4. I can remember vividly our coach saying before our last game versus Temple, he wanted us to win our last game so we could go in to the next season with a win, when we played Harvard," Evans said. "[Beating Harvard] got us off to a good start – it was a different feeling. We had no notion of winning the Lambert Cup, we didn't even know about it. We just wanted to win football games."

According to Kowalski, the Bulls were in a unique position due to the fact that they were the only team in or near Buffalo. This gathered media attention.

"Most of the teams that played football after the Second World War had already dropped it," Kowalski said. "We were the only game in town and the papers started to give us all kinds of press, which was kind of unique."

"It was a big deal for Buffalo at the time," Evans concurred. "Blacks weren't included in the paper at all for any reason, yet we were on the front page. When we were coming back from Harvard, the pilot told us that there were a couple thousand students waiting for us at the airport. It was great support."

It was not a coincidence that the Bulls were peaking in 1958; the senior class was the first class to play all four years on scholarship, meaning the team was as cohesive as ever and also had as much talent as possible. While Kowalski understands that football has changed immensely in the past 50 years, he is proud of the accomplishments the team made, and how they stuck together in the face of adversity that followed the end of the regular season.

"We stand very high, simply because of the celebrity that was given to us, that opportunity that we had to make a mark…we were the first team to go into the UB Hall of Fame," Kowalski said. "Obviously the whole game of football has changed so dramatically…we couldn't compare to the teams that are put on the field today, but at that time, we were a very respectable team."

In the final game of the regular season, the Bulls defeated Bucknell 38-0 to earn their first Lambert Cup. This game was especially important for Kowalski, who played in front of friends, family and his old high school football coach. Kowalski did not disappoint, returning an interception for a touchdown en route to Buffalo's victory.

"They are two of our finest young men, and have greatly contributed to our fine showing this season. The possibility of discrimination against any member of the team prevents our appearance at the game."

After the victory, Buffalo's co-captains Nicholas Bottini and Louis Reale appeared on the Ed Sullivan show to accept the Lambert Cup, a trophy for the top team of the "Eastern Small

Willie Evans averaged 7.6 yards per carry for 530 yards in 1958

Colleges."

Along with the victory came an invite to the Tangerine Bowl. When news broke about the Bulls being invited to their first bowl game, the team was skeptical, as it would have meant missing a week of classes and work. Several players on the team were married and needed to continue to work to support their family. After much debate however, the team decided to accept the invite.

The decision was quickly changed when Buffalo was informed that if the team was to play, they would have to do so without Evans or Wilson, who were both black.

"Our initial feelings were good. We never even thought about playing in a bowl game. The issue of race didn't even come up in the beginning," Evans said. "The only thing I recall is the first meeting we had where we decided we wanted to go as a team. I found out (about the racism issue) as I walked out of the house after Thanksgiving, and a neighbor said to me 'I guess they don't want you black boys down there…' I got the newspaper and there was my picture on the front page of the Courier Express with Mike Wilson, outlining the position Chancellor Furnas took on the issue, where if myself and Mike couldn't play, UB would not take part in the contest."

The field that had been rented for the game belonged to an Orlando school district that had a strict rule that blacks and whites could not play on the field at the same time, the team discovered. In response, the Bulls held a second meeting where they decided not to play in the game if Evans and Wilson would not be allowed to play. While the Elks Club, the sponsor of the game, offered to find another field, Chancellor Furnas was the man charged with making the ultimate decision.

"Chancellor Furnas was a prominent individual… his credentials were impeccable," Kowalski said. "He was a physicist. He was an Olympic sprinter. He was the assistant secretary of defense for research and development in the Eisenhower administration… there wasn't anybody capable of criticizing him. The way he put it was he would not demean any of his players, or even present an opportunity for anyone to be uncomfortable in the Florida setting."

As the image of Buffalo's first bowl came and went, Evans carried the experience of racism with him after college. It followed him to the professional level, as he entered the American Football League. Evans had never visited any of the southern states.

"I had a chip on my shoulder from the experience. It was a matter of letting it beat you down or not. I saw it as an opportunity to show my athleticism. I eventually was drafted by the Buffalo Bills, which was also an experience. It was my first time playing with white ball players from the South. There were players I never spoke to, and they never spoke to me, yet we were 'teammates.' That hardened my attitude about the idea of racism. Our coach was from the South, and I didn't appreciate being called 'boy.' He called everybody 'boy.' I ended up getting released right before the season began, but I wasn't too upset about it."

Since his playing days, Evans has remained active in the University community, holding several positions on the Alumni board and serving on the committees that brought both Athletic Director Warde Manuel and President Simpson to Buffalo.

"One reason why I'm still with the university is the way things have come," Evans said. "Diversity is something that has caught on with the campus. We're not there yet, but it has improved significantly since I was here. There are expectations that exist now that were not around when I was a student."

Discrimination Is Issue

UB Turns Down Bid To Tangerine Bowl

By RAY RYAN

The University of Buffalo, unswervingly loyal to two of its players, last night turned down an invitation to play its first bowl football game—the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Fla., on Dec. 27.

The issue was discrimination. Two of Buffalo's players are Negroes. Willie Evans, a left halfback, led the Bulls in rushing yardage during their highly successful 8-1 season. Mike Wilson is a reserve end.

The fault did not lie with the Tangerine Bowl committee or its chairman, Jack Morgan, or the Orlando Elks Club, which promotes the game for the benefit of crippled children.

The committee tendered the bid on Monday, Nov. 24, with the full knowledge that Buffalo has two Negro players. Subsequently, the committee approached the Orlando High School Athletic Assn., which controls the stadium which is the site of the game, with a request it be allowed to rent the stadium.

At the same time, the committee requested that the Athletic Assn. waive a clause in the standard contract which stipulates there be no intermingling of the races in athletic contests in the stadium. This request was refused.

The Tangerine Bowl committee voted—104 to 4—in favor of Buffalo coming to Orlando, even in view of this development. These men wanted to see Buffalo play football.

Willie Evans

Mike Wilson

... Buffalo backs them

But the only other possible playing site in Orlando is a practice field around which 3,000 or 4,000 bleacher seats could be installed.

Morgan said that, if Buffalo desired to make the trip, the Elks would guarantee there would be no discrimination. Although the Elks undoubtedly would take a tremendous financial loss (the Tangerine Bowl seats 13,500), they stood ready to live up to every financial term contained in the bid to the Buffalo athletic director, Jim Peelle, last Monday.

Dr. Clifford C. Furnas, chancellor of the University of Buffalo, was informed of the Orlando High School Athletic
